

EDITORIAL

Tuesday, Newton will select one of three candidates for Mayor to be its Chief Executive for the next two years. The outcome of this contest is important.

As the Chief Executive of this city, much of the responsibility for the orderly and necessary function of its government is placed squarely on the shoulders of the man chosen.

No man, no matter who he is, can be expected to make decisions, prepare projects and function in his duties to the complete satisfaction of the entire citizenship of a community. Newton is no exception.

During this present campaign, charges have been hurled at the present incumbent who now seeks re-election. The electorate, no doubt, is fully aware, or should be, of all phases which have developed to date.

THE GRAPHIC, having weighed all statements, having considered all phases, having reviewed all facts, is of the considered opinion that the present incumbent, Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood, is entitled to, and should be accorded another term as Mayor of Newton.

HALLOWE'EN OBSERVANCE SETS ALL-TIME RECORD

Newton's 1949 Halloween celebration, the ninth annual, hit an all-time record, with more than 12,000 school children of all ages participating in 243 separate parties held in 38 different key locations throughout the City. From every standpoint, this year's celebration was a huge success, and adds lustre to the fame which Newton has won through these mammoth affairs during the past few years.

This outstanding example of civic co-operation is probably unequaled anywhere in the country, and reflects particular credit on the 1400 committee members who gave so much of their time and energy to its planning and direction. To them, —HALLOWE'EN—

Raytheon Employees Are Congratulated

Praising the spirit which put Raytheon "over the top" in the 1950 Red Feather drive, C. F. Adams, Jr., president, congratulated employees of the Waltham and Newton plants.

"The people of Raytheon," Adams said, "have once again exhibited the spirit which makes voluntary community effort so typically American. Only in our democratic way of life is it possible for people to band together for the well-being of the community."

"Acting as individuals, but for the good of all," Mr. Adams continued, "our people have shown that they will do whatever is necessary to help support the humanitarian services which the Community Fund provides."

"Through the efforts of Raytheon's Red Feather chairman, Riley Hampton, and his hard-working solicitors, the campaign in both our plants was highly successful."

"It is with pleasurable pride I say to Mr. Hampton, to the Raytheon Red Feather Committee, to the solicitors, and to all employees, 'Congratulations for a job well done.'"

Incomplete returns reported $21,000 from the company and its employees in Waltham and Newton.

Community-Wide Church Canvass Now Under Way

Plans for a community-wide campaign to impress upon the people of Newton the importance of religion and of religious institutions and to urge them to attend their houses of divine worship were announced by Edmund S. Whitten of Waban, Chairman of the Public Relations Department of the Newton Council of Churches.

The local campaign, Whitten said, will coincide with the nationwide drive of Religion in American Life, which will concentrate on the period of November 1-24 to convey to millions of Americans the message: "Find yourself through faith. Come to church this week." On the national scale, the message will be conveyed by means of mass media of communication — newspapers, radio, outdoor advertising, and car cards.

"Both locally and nationally," Whitten explained, "the purpose of the campaign will be to strengthen our moral and spiritual foundations and to bring home to the individual the incalculable service rendered by religion and religious institutions to the individual and the community, and the nations."

"Church Groups participating in the campaign locally, Whitten announced will be the Newton Council of Churches, the Newton Y.M.C.A., the Council of Church Women, the Norumbega Council of Religious Education and the following churches: Auburndale Congregational, Centenary Methodist, Messiah Episcopal, Eliot Congregational, Grace Episcopal, Newton Methodist, First Baptist, Newton Centre, Newton Centre Methodist, Trinity Episcopal, Newton Highlands Congregational Church, Perrin Memorial Church, Saint Mary's Episcopal, First Methodist, Upper Falls, Second Baptist, Upper Falls, Church of the Open Word, Saint

Two Day Fair Now In Progress Here

The "frost is on the Punkin", but it is the squash that will be featured in the decorations at the two-day fair to be held this Thursday and Friday, November 3rd and 4th, at the Second Church in Newton. Why the name Squash End for this affair?

One hundred and seventy years ago, there was a church in Newton, but the settlers to the west found it increasingly difficult to support two churches, as they had founded their own, but could not be released from paying taxes to the older parish from which they had sprung. Finally, an appeal to the legislature resulted in the desired permission to become a separate parish. The surveyors came out, and the bitterly disputed boundary line ran directly across a huge squash in a farmer's yard at what is now the corner of Pearl and Water-town streets. As the seed end lay to the west, the First Church members delighted in calling the members of the new parish "Squash enders", and the name was in common use up to the end of the last century. This colonial name was revived two years ago by the Second Church for their fair of that year, and proved so generally pleasing that it was unanimously voted to retain it for 1949.

To Dedicate New Lutheran Church Sunday Afternoon

On Sunday, November 6, the new Lutheran Church of the Newtons will be dedicated in a special service at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Louis Henz of New York City, executive secretary of the Atlantic District of the Lutheran Church, will preach the sermon. The Rev. Arthur H. Block, pastor of the local church, will perform the rite of dedication.

The Lutheran Church was organized three years ago on May 26, 1946. A preliminary survey indicated the need for a Lutheran Church in the community. Accordingly, the board of directors of the Atlantic District called the Rev. Mr. Block to establish a church. Up to the present time services have been held in a large mansion on Walnut street in Newtonville which was adapted for church purposes. The congregation has made steady progress and was in a position to purchase the former Unitarian Church located on Center and Cypress streets in Newton Centre.

After dedication Sunday services will be held in the new church every Sunday at 10:45 a.m. The church school will also meet at the same time. A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us.

RED FEATHER FUND NOW 61 PERCENT COMPLETED

"Newton has raised $184,601 in the Red Feather Campaign," stated Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton Chairman, in an announcement made early this week. "This is 61 per cent of the Newton goal and is the amount announced at the third Report Luncheon of the United Community Services on Monday at the Boston City Club."

"Ten days after the Opening Dinner a year ago," Mr. Pillsbury further states, "Newton had raised 49 per cent of its goal, so that our present figure compared with last year for the same date, is most encouraging. On the other hand, the Red Feather Campaign in Greater Boston started in most communities one week earlier this year than we did in Newton and, as a result, we are lagging behind the Campaign as a whole, which reported 67 per cent raised at Monday noon's luncheon."

An interesting feature of this year's Campaign is the challenge issued to Newton before the Campaign started by Albert Pratt, Chairman in Brookline, which Mr. Pillsbury promptly accepted. The challenge was that if Brookline did not have a higher percentage of its goal raised than Newton at the luncheon meeting on Tuesday, November 8, Chairman Pratt would give Chairman Pillsbury a ride in a wheelbarrow down one of the main streets in Newton. If Brookline should beat Newton, however, Mr. Pillsbury would have to push Mr. Pratt down one of the main streets in Brookline. At Monday's luncheon, Brookline reached 78 per cent of its goal as against Newton's 61 per cent, and Pratt insisted that Pillsbury demonstrated how he was going to carry out his part in the stunt, compelling Pillsbury to give him a ride across the stage right then and there. This Mr. Pillsbury did, but not before stating that in the final pay-off, he expected to be the one to get the long ride!

Many of Newton's sections have reached 100 per cent of their goal, and following are the percentages of all Newton groups who were over 75 per cent at Monday's Report Luncheon: Emerson School 172.7; Oak Hill Team 12, 140.3; Hamilton School 125.0; Newton-Wellesley Hospital Employees 123.7; Oak Hill Team 9, 117.4; Engineers Department-Municipal 116.5; Health Department-Municipal 116.5; Peirce School 111.1; Franklin School 110.0; Police Department-Municipal 108.6; Welfare Department-Municipal 108.0; Oak Hill School 107.4; Chest Agencies 103.1; City Clerk's Department - Municipal 102.2; Waban Team 4, 101.7; Waban Mercantile 101.7; Assessors Department-Municipal 100.8; Peabody Home School 100.0; Veterans' Service Department-Municipal 100.0; West Newton Mercantile 100.0; Administration Schools; Frank A. ## CANDIDATES CONFIDENT AS CAMPAIGN CLOSES

After days and weeks of campaigning by all candidates, and particularly by the three contestants for Mayor, Newton's electorate will go to the polls Tuesday to settle the issues which appear on the ballot.

Major interest naturally, centers on the mayoralty contest but the contests for the board of aldermen have also been spirited and keen interest is being manifested in several of them.

Whether the campaigning for all the candidates has aroused sufficient interest to bring out a large vote is problematical. Some local observers are inclined to place a total vote cast Tuesday at not more than 20,000 and probably nearer 15,000.

The campaign for mayor by the three candidates has not been without charges and counter-charges and has resulted in some pretty harsh statements being made. That the contest has been bitterly fought, particularly during these last three weeks, no one can deny.

Yet despite all this, the followers of Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood, who is seeking re-election; John A. Janse and Walter A. Hodgdon are all confident of victory next Tuesday.

Mayor Lockwood, being the incumbent, has had to defend his record against the combined attacks of both Janse and Hodgdon, yet he has not hesitated to put both of his opponents on the defensive also.

Despite all this, however, it is a question whether the electorate has been sufficiently aroused to bring out more than an average vote.

PTA Council to Meet Next Thursday

Student Tickets Now On Sale For Concert

The sale of student tickets for the Zimber String Sinfonietta concert to be held on the evening of November 25 at the Newton High School under the sponsorship of the Newton Chamber Music Society, is already under way. General chairman of the Newton Chamber Music Society is Mrs. Mark F. Lesse, treasurer is Miss Mary A. Clarke and working with them from the Newton schools are Mr. James Remley, Mr. Donald March and Mr. Henry Lasker. This year student tickets will be available to students in the junior high schools, the elementary schools, and local schools and colleges in the Greater Boston area.

The Fessenden School has ordered a block of tickets, and interest is being shown at LaSalle Junior College, Mt. Ida Junior College, Brimmer May School, the Winsor School, and the Beaver Country Day. Ticket sales to parents who have decided to make this unusual concert a family affair, has been brisk. There are only a limited number of student tickets since the sponsorships and general admission tickets make possible educational purposes of the Newton Chamber Music Society.

The high quality of the musicianship of the Zimber group is well known and this year the concert will have as featured artists the world renowned harpist, Marcel Grandjany. A harp soloist with a string group is musical news and it is expected

Parents' Night to Be Held Next Wed.

The annual fall Parents' Night at the Warren Junior High School, West Newton, will be held Wednesday evening, November 8, from 7:15 to 9:45 p. m. As announced by the principal, Mr. Paul C. Scarborough, this open house will constitute a part of the observance of American Education Week.

Throughout the evening teachers will be in their classrooms to receive parents. Because of the large number who always attend, the time for individual interviews is limited. However, this event serves as an opportunity for both fathers and mothers to meet their children's teachers. They are encouraged to make appointments for longer conferences at a future date.

From 7:45 to 8:15 a meeting of the Warren Junior High School Parent-Teachers Association will be held in the Assembly Hall. There will also be a food sale during the evening under the direction of the P.T.A.

It is estimated by the American Bar Association that 100,000 wills are presented for probate in the United States each year.

Volunteer Work Cuts Cost to Minimum

"In spite of the fact that the spirit of charity is strong in all of us," said Dwight Colburn, General Chairman for Newton of the Salvation Army's appeal for funds, "two things deter many people when they are asked to contribute to some worthy cause. The first is that their budgets won't allow them to give as much as they would like. So they hold back, thinking small sums of money aren't welcome. And the second is they are afraid a considerable part of whatever they can contribute will be eaten up by expenses ordinarily associated, in their minds, with a drive for financial assistance."

"I want to clear up those misapprehensions—at least in connection with the Salvation Army. Regarding the size of contributions, let me assure everyone that no contribution is too small to be heartily welcomed. Every dollar received is that much more towards our quota and, therefore, means a dollar more to spend for some unfortunate family. Actually, we would rather have a small donation from everyone in Newton than large sums from only a few. That would make our drive truly all-Newton."

"Then regarding the matter of expenses, let me emphasize there is practically no cost connected with the Salvation Army drive in our community. Around a thousand men and women are canvassing the City for contributions. They are all volunteers. They do not receive one cent of pay for their fine work. And they are generously making real sacrifices to help the Salvation Army because they are heart and soul behind that admirable organization."

"Further," went on Mr. Colburn, "consider the money allocated to Newton from our total collections and earmarked for strictly local relief. The spending of that money is in the hands of an able committee of Newton men and women who are experienced in welfare work. They use the money for Newton people, only. They weigh and consider cases. That takes time. It takes thought. It calls for sound judgement. Yet the members of that committee, also, get not one cent for their loyal and time consuming work."

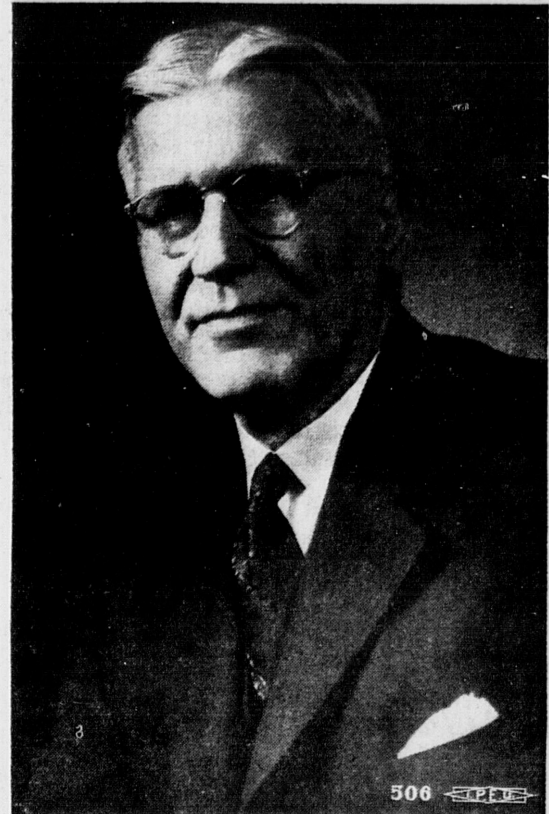

"I hope these few words will erase any doubt about the two points I've mentioned. To repeat: any contribution, no matter how small, will be gratefully received. The chief thing is to give something, and so help support an organization that is a godsend to families in desperate need. And, secondly, remember that our volunteer system of canvassing means every dollar does a maximum amount of good."

According to Mr. Colburn, the Salvation Army drive in Newton, for $20,000 is progressing steadily. "However," he declared, "Newton has not yet reached its quota. But I'm firmly convinced we'll do as much as last year, when we went over the top. Our workers determined to equal that record. But it takes a lot of time for them to visit every home. Understandably, they cannot work full time. They have obligations and private matters which naturally demand attention. Even so, they generously volunteer to do a hard job. And they're doing it. Perhaps you have not yet been visited by your canvasser. In that case, do not wait. Please send, or take, your contribution to the Salvation Army Fund headquarters, at 259 Walnut street, Newtonville. I earnestly urge you to do so now—however small you feel your contribution must be. Whatever the amount, rest assured that in the hands of the Salvation Army and our local committee it will do yeoman's work for some trouble-beset human being."

Mayor Lockwood Says Parties Gratifying

"As I review our Halloween parties," stated Mayor Lockwood this week, "I feel a deep sense of gratification. It is not only because it is clear that these annual celebrations of ours are definitely achieving their objectives—that is, arousing in children of all ages a better understanding of the basic principles of good citizenship; nor because it is so heartwarming to see the great wave of happiness that floods the City as the young people participate in the joyous affairs their parents and other interested citizens have been planning for so many weeks. It is—if it can be one thing more than another—because Newton Halloween celebrations are impressive examples of civic co-operation and co-ordination — of men and women of every race, creed and color, working wholeheartedly, harmoniously and unselfishly, as one huge unit, in an eminently worthy, city-wide enterprise."

"Sparked by such a splendid spirit, it is only natural that Newton's Halloweens should be so successful that other cities, in numerous states, are accepting the "Newton Plan" as the pattern and guide for similar activities of their own. It is a source of great pride to me to be the chief executive of a community whose citizens can and do enter so enthusiastically and energetically into an endeavor which is of untold value in its overall, far reaching benefits."

Renovate Old Fur For New Service

Old fur pieces may be renovated at home and used to add good looks and warmth to winter clothing. Even if they are worn, they may be cut and reworked, while small scraps often may be matched and pieced.

To clean fur, dampen corn meal with a dry-cleaning solvent such as carbon tetrachloride, and rub into the fur. Then shake, brush and air the fur.

Badly soiled, small pieces of good quality fur can be washed with mild oil-base soap and warm water. Rinse and squeeze out as much water as possible for excess water may harden the pelt. Hang fur up by the edge. As the pelt dries and hardens, flex it gently between the hands. When thoroughly dry, shake and brush.

Soften Hard Pelts

To soften dry, hard pelts, tack to a board, skin side up. Rub skin with thick suds of oil soap, taking care that moisture does not soak through to the fur. When dry, work pelt gently between hands.

White or faded fur may need to be dyed with hair dye, following directions on the package. Dip fur in dye. Then wash, squeeze out moisture, and let dry. Shake and brush.

Glazing must be done with great care. Brush and comb the fur well, lay it flat, then with a damp sponge, stroke fur lightly in the direction the hair grows. Don't let water penetrate skin. Cover fur with tissue paper and run a hot iron very quickly and carefully over the paper. Remove paper and run iron rapidly over the fur, again in the direction of its natural flow.

Cut with Razor

To cut fur, mark skin side with tailor's chalk. Cut just through skin with razor blade.

To seam fur invisibly, lay two edges together so that fur of both pieces runs in the same direction. Lay fur sides together, push away hair and sew skin with a close overhand stitch, using a fine needle.

Fur wears better if bolstered by a soft layer of padding such as outing flannel attached to pelt with tacking stitches.

To sew fur to cloth, attach tape to the edge, against the fur side, then turn tape over skin side and sew through the tape close to the fur and onto the cloth.

Mrs. B. West Roxbury.

Mr. Julius E. Larsen, 4190

supplied the answer to Mrs. B.'s question. He advised, "First wash the seat with a strong water, perhaps a Sal Soda solution, then sandpaper it smooth. Afterwards coat the seat with one coat of enamel under-coater, and finish with two coats of Duco enamel."

I spilled some cologne on my

PreFab Hearing Set For Next Monday

Judge Edward F. Hanify of the Middlesex Superior Court has postponed, until November 7, a hearing on a writ of mandamus filed against the city of Newton
by the residents of the Rolling Acres section of Oak Hill. The issue is the erection of prefabricated Lustron Homes on Brookline street, Oak Hill.The writ requests the court to revoke the building permits issued by Arthur Campbell, building commissioner, on the grounds that they were granted under an unconstitutional statute.The Attorney-General's office, the city of Newton, the residents to Rolling Acres, and the Beacon Construction Company will all be represented at the hearing.Twenty owners of property in the area where the homes are to be built filed the petition. A spokesman for the group said they are not opposed to public housing, but are opposed to the way the statute so overrides cities and towns that it is impossible to protect property values.

From Headquarters Of John Janse

Contrary to opinions expressed in a newspaper (not this one) John A. Janse, candidate for mayor of Newton WAS NOT restrained by court order neither was there an injunction granted
by Judge Felix Forte in Suffolk Superior Court Monday.Under stipulations agreed to by counsel for Jablonski Bros.,
Inc. and Atty Thomas Ryan of Newton representing Mr. Janse the latter has the right, orally or in writing, to discuss whatever facts pertain to the performance of the contract. All of the stipulations were agreed to in lieu of an injunction. In fact, the case has been postponed until Dec. 26.In his opening remarks the plaintiff's attorney asserted that in several instances his clients trucks were stopped and threatened. Attorney Ryan denied every statement made by the plaintiff, particularly #11 in the plaintiff's bill of complaint which says, "various inquiries, investigations and inspections have been made by properly constituted officials of said city concerning the plaintiff's contract with the city of Newton thereby causing great damage."Thereupon, Attorney Ryan said, "I suppose if the plaintiff's trucks are stopped tomorrow morning for failure to have an automobile inspection sticker I suppose that will be charged against the defendant."Atty. Ryan also called attention to the fact that IF the plain-tiff's drivers were molested or intimidated they should have filed complaint with the proper authorities. Said, Mr. Ryan,
"This bill of complaint is in substance an indictment of the Newton police department and the Middlesex County district attorney's office." He emphasized that the court knows well the efficiency of the Newton police department and the willing cooperative attitude of the district attorney's office.Judge Forte then suggested that the attorneys retire and work out their differences which they did and as a result no restraining order was issued by the court.The garbage contract issue was raised by Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood some weeks ago and has been his sole avenue of attack upon Mr. Janse during the campaign although Mr. Janse successfully handled the contract
under ex-Mayors Edwin O.
Childs, Sinclair Weeks and Paul
M. Goddard for some 21 years.

From Headquarters

Of Walter Hodgdon

In a release issued this week,

Walter A. Hodgdon, candidate for Mayor at the election next Tuesday stated:"At a meeting held at Newton Centre last Thursday night, personalities were indulged in by Mayor Lockwood when he referred to some of my relatives.
This is a clear case of intimidattion. It is a veiled threat to silence me."The implications discernible to fairminded citizens are, shut up Hodgdon, or your brother and your nephew will be disciplined.
We are Americans and unafraid.
My brother is a veteran of the first World War; my nephew is a veteran of the last war, has his name on the Honor Roll at City Hall. My three sons have their names on this Honor Roll too.
My three sons and my nephew served overseas. We don't scare."Carol Ann Wolcott and Janet E. Wyman are members of the Vesper Choir at Lasell Junior College in Auburndale. Miss Wolcott, a senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H.
Bird of 989 Centre street, Newton Centre, and Miss Wyman, who is a freshman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E.
Wyman of 47 Clark street, Newton Centre.Len Goldstein, 40 Cedar street, Newton Centre, was elected managing editor of the University of Bridgeport annual yearbook,
The Wistarian.

By "Bump" Hadley

WBZ, WBZ-TV Sportscenter and Former Major League Pitcher

WHY DOES a man want to be a baseball manager? Oh, I don't mean the Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel and Billy Southworths — the men who have material to work with and money behind them to buy other material in the ivory market. I'm thinking particularly of men like Bucky Harris, who recently signed to manage the Washington Senators, or Luke Sewell, who signed to manage the Cincinnati Reds.

Harris, who has managed Washington twice previously and has been fired by the Senators for not producing, certainly walked into this job with his eyes open. Bucky knows that his material is very slim in Washington. He knows that the Senators finished in the cellar this past season. He knows that the Senators don't have too much of a farm system. And he knows that Clark Griffith will not spend heavy money for players, even if the players were available.

So Harris must be resigned to finishing deep in the second division next year. The best he can hope for is to escape the cellar. He must feel reasonably certain, that unless the Senators show rapid improvement, he'll be looking for another job in three years.

In spite of all this, Bucky Harris resigned a well-paying job with San Diego in the Pacific Coast League to return to the major leagues with a team with which he has never had too much success.

The only way to explain it is that the guy loves baseball and is a major leaguer at heart.

Rev. F. P. Sullivan
Fire Dept. Chaplain

Rev. Francis P. Sullivan, of St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, has been appointed to serve as chaplain of the Newton Fire Department, according to an announcement from Chief John E. Corcoran. Father Sullivan succeeds Rev. Arthur I. Norton.

In making the announcement, Chief Corcoran said the Newton Fire Department "lost a chaplain who was respected and loved by all members of the department, regardless of creed."

Father Sullivan, a native of Cambridge, has long been interested in the fire department.

Chief Purcell Highly Regarded By Association

Word has been received from Dallas, Texas, that Newton should be very proud of its police chief as the International Association of Chiefs of Police has a very high regard for him as a man and his abilities as a law enforcement officer.

Chief Purcell recently returned from the 56th annual convention of International Association of Chiefs of Police in Dallas.

The purpose of the association is to seek out procedures and to inform all police executives of new techniques and progressive practices.

Its formal objectives are to advance the science and art of police administration and crime prevention, to develop and disseminate improved administrative and technical practices and promote their use in police work, to foster police cooperation and the exchange of information and experience among police administrators throughout the world, to bring about enlistment and training in the police profession of qualified persons, and to encourage adherence of all officers to high professional standards of conduct. Its standing committees study and report annually on current police problems such as professional standards, national security, public relations, future planning, federal, state and municipal cooperation, social protection, civil defense planning, traffic, safety and transportation, all of which deal with effective procedures and methods of solution.

Church Bells of Newton to Ring Saturday Evening

The bells of 32 Newton churches will ring for five minutes Saturday evening to remind church members to attend the church of their choice on National Church Day, November 13th. The observance is a part of the national Religion in American Life Campaign and is connected in Newton with the United Church Canvass which will take place later in November. The aim of the committee, of which Lucius E. Thayer and William V. M. Fawcett are co-chairmen is to have every participating church filled to overflowing at the principal Sunday morning service on Loyalty Day. Posters showing a well filled family pew and the legend "Your Church Needs You" will appear throughout the city during the week as well as a general mailing piece which suggests that all church members take hold and pull together to keep the church bells ringing.

The various canvass plans throughout the city are original and varied in the individual churches which are planning to mark both Loyalty Day, November 13th and Canvass Sunday, November 27th.

At Centenary Methodist Church, Auburndale, Rev. Sydney Adams will preach to his flock on "Stewardship" on November 13th and on Thursday, November 17th there will be a parish supper when William V. M. Fawcett will speak on the meaning of the United Church Canvass. Perrin Memorial Church in Newton Lower Falls will tie in with this program as it is served by the pastor of Centenary.

At Elliot Congregational Church, Newton, Ray E. Johns, a layman member of Elliot Church and general secretary of the Boston YMCA, will speak at the 10:45 a.m. service November 13th. At 6:30 p.m., members of the church will be guests of the parish at a supper at which time the budget for 1950 will be presented by Dr. Edwin P.

Leonard Jr., chairman of the budget committee and director of the church canvass. There will also be a meeting of the canvass committee on Monday, November 21st at 8 p.m., presided over by Dr. Leonard.

At the Messiah Episcopal Church, Auburndale, the Rev. Richard P. McClintock will preach on "What do ye more than others?" at the 11 a.m. Loyalty Day service. Special emphasis will be placed on the anniversary of the fire which gutted the church and parish hall six years ago and prayers of thanksgiving said for the remarkable recovery made by the parish since the disaster. On Tuesday, November 22nd, the canvassers will be served a supper at the church and the meeting presided over by canvass chairman Joseph Hibsher and Bennett Jackson.

Grace Episcopal Church, Newton, will have a layman in the pulpit on November 20th, Grosvenor Calkins, a member of the parish. On November 21 there will be a Parish Super at which time the Canvass plans will be explained to the Parish. The Rev. Gardner Day, rector of Christ Church Cambridge will be the speaker. On Canvass Sunday, November 27 the Canvassers will sit down to a church luncheon before they set out to make the doorbells ring.

Newton Methodist Church is holding a series of "Information Please" programs during the regular morning services. On November 13th, George R. Stranberg, Chairman of the Finance Committee will speak on "Your Church and its Budget". On November 20 Information Please, "Your Church and its care of the Building" by Eldred L. ### Members Hear Talk On Trip to Mexico

"Eight Thousand Miles by Auto to Mexico and Horseback Up A Live Volcano" was the subject of a talk Wednesday night to the Women's Auxiliary of the Newton Young Men's Christian Association.

Presenting it were Edward Vassar Ambler, writer of sea, radio, and various outdoor stories and Mrs. Ambler who was responsible for the more than one hundred colorful slides that were shown.

Mr. Ambler, who has made several trips to Central America and several thousands of miles on foot, auto and canoe in the United States and Canada, started the narrative of this latest journey from the historic sea port of Gloucester with a party of four who were to cover eight thousand miles on the trip.

In his opening, Mr. Ambler told the story of a millionaire tramp who saw the world with a pack on his back and who gave the speaker a desire early in life to journey off the beaten path.

The speaker, who started with a Gloucester fishing scene, carried his audience into Mammoth Cave in Kentucky, Hot Springs, Arkansas and the Belingrath Gardens on the Isle-Aux-Oies River in Alabama with its sixty acres of beautifully flowering views, with descriptions furnished by Mrs. Ambler.

Several scenes were then shown of Death Valley, taken on a previous trip across the border in California, and told of the background of history as it tied up with Mexico, of the eleven hundred miles of our border states.

Scenes on the Texas border included the Alamo and Lorado before entering Mexico on the great Pan American Highway.

Unusual and very colorful scenes were shown on the journey of nearly eight hundred miles from the border to Mexico City in a land of twenty million inhabitants and over one hundred and ninety dialects and languages. On the journey pictures of descendants of prehistoric Indian tribes were shown, as well as native life and eight thousand foot mountain top scenery.

Historic shrines of Mexico City as well as views of beautiful modern buildings in this city of over two million inhabitants were shown.

A detailed series of pictures of a bull fight, scenes as the party journeyed through the floating Garden and native life were some of the graphic descriptions in the vicinity of Mexico City.

By an overwhelming vote Tuesday, Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood easily won re-election over his two opponents, John A. Janse and Walter A. Hodgdon, who finished second and third respectively. Mayor Lockwood polled 20,941 votes to 5,376 votes for Janse and 1,059 votes for Hodgdon.

A perfect day aided greatly in bringing out a heavy turnout of voters and 27,401 votes, or 65 per cent of the total registration of 42,339, were cast.

While the victory of Mayor Lockwood was not unexpected, the margin by which he defeated his two opponents proved conclusively that his administration of the city's affairs during the past two years met with approval.

In other contests, James J. Cahill was the victor in the only School Committee race, while Ward 6 Alderman Stanton J. TenBroeck, Jr., retained his seat in a close fight with Mrs. Helen R. Lessee. Other Ward aldermen who retained their seats after contests were Arthur S. Scipione in Ward 2; Harold B. Buse, in Ward 4, and Clyde S. Casady, in Ward 5. Newcomers to the Board of Aldermen will be Leo M. Cannon, who defeated former Police Chief Nicholas Veduccio in Ward 1; Carleton P. Merrill, who was runner-up to Alderman Edward A. Fahey, for Alderman-at-large, Ward 1; Edwin A. Terkelsen, who placed second to Board President Wendell R. Bauckman in the at-large contest

To Transfer HOLC Loans To Newton Savings Bank Soon

All of the mortgages now held by the Home Owners Loan Corporation on properties in Newton, Needham and Weymouth have been awarded to the Newton Savings Bank by the Home Owners Loan Corporation. In the near future these loans will start to be transferred to this local bank from the office of the H.O.L.C. in New York. Over $1,000,000. is involved in the total mortgages to be acquired by the Newton Savings Bank on mortgages in its immediate vicinity.

The selection of this bank by the Home Owners Loan Corporation gives the home owners concerned in this area the advantage of friendly, local financing on their properties by one of the oldest banks in this locality, as this bank commenced business in 1829.

If You Own Property Jointly with Another

Where husband and wife or any two or more persons hold property in certain forms of joint ownership, they get the benefit of attractive legal and practical advantages.

Yet, taxwise, joint ownership may be costly. The death of one joint owner may force the survivor to pay heavy estate tax assessments or capital gains taxes. The creation of joint ownership sometimes involves a Federal gift tax.

If you have entered into joint ownership without finding out what tax liabilities might result, check with your lawyer now. Joint ownership may be advantageous for you; on the other hand it may be costly. Your lawyer can tell you.

Untiring Efforts of Local Man Brings Realization

The first garden-type Jewish cemetery in New England is now the largest of its kind in the area, primarily because of the untiring efforts of a Newton executive who has lived one of the most dramatic success stories of modern-day America. It is the story of Eric S. Marmorek of 22 Holland street, Newton, who today is vice president of Sharon Memorial Park with executive offices at 60 State street, Boston.

Here is a man who, by the dint of his own hard work and enthusiasm for life wrote another outstanding chapter in the glowing record of the United States as a land of opportunity; the tale of a man and a belief — a belief in an idea and in his new found homeland that has carried him and the cause for which he has worked so hard, to impressive heights.

When Eric Marmorek arrived in the United States in 1939, he left behind him eight months in Dachau and Buchenwald concentration camps during which time fully one-third of those men interned with him had perished. Hitler's march into Austria had wiped out the Marmorek family business and all their substantial assets.

A man of active imagination, forceful personality, unswerving determination and holder of

Warns Motorists To Dim High Beam Lights

Chief Philip Purcell in cooperation with the Massachusetts Safety Council is issuing a warning to motorists to dim their lights in passing. Many accidents could be avoided if drivers would live up to this law. It's a simple matter to dim one's lights, and it's a great help to both operators in approaching each other.

The Chief stated that now is a good time to see that your brakes are in good working order. Have them equalized to prevent slipping on wet leaves and pavements.

Chief Purcell warns that at 20 m.p.h. it takes almost 60 feet to bring your car to a complete stop. It takes the ordinary driver almost a second to change his foot from "gas to brake," and at 20 m.p.h. your car will roll about 29 feet. Keeping this in mind, don't "follow" too closely—it will save you a lot of rear-end collisions.

Theme of the week is "Christ is the answer for every individual, for every family, for every worker, for every citizen, for every nation, for every race, for the whole world." The Week of Prayer and World Fellowship has been observed annually for more than seventy years in Y.M.C.A.'s and Y.W.C.A.'s.

More Than 1300 Conferences Held At Parents Night

Parents and teachers held more than 1300 conferences Parents Night, last Friday, at Newton High School. Members of the National Honor Society and the Future Teachers of America served as pupil guides for the many visitors. Signs prepared by pupils in the Art classes directed visitors to special exhibits.

Many of the guests, fathers especially, visited the "High School and their children's teachers for the first time. The chief reason we have arranged for this evening Open House," said Raymond A. Green, Principal, "is to give fathers, who cannot conveniently visit in the afternoon, an opportunity to meet teachers. I believe that many fathers leave the school tonight with a clearer understanding of the High School program and the part their youngsters play in it."

Besides the opportunity to meet and confer with teachers, and examine pupil work displayed on the bulletin boards of the classrooms, special activities of many kinds were presented for the benefit and entertainment of the visitors. Girls in home economics demonstrated methods of sewing, while boys in the pre-chef course exhibited the art of pie-making. In different ial Park not just a magnificent memorial to the departed, but more important, a great help and consolation to those left behind.

Tremendous success has been achieved with temples in the Greater Boston area, which have realized the wisdom of obtaining sections of the park in the interests of their congregations. Temple Sinai of Brookline and Temple Israel of Sharon already have reserved sections for their own congregations at Sharon Memorial Park. Many other temples are presently considering reserving a section in this beautiful garden-type cemetery.

Sharon Memorial Park has all the features desired, acres and acres of beautiful landscaped grounds, consisting of rolling green lawns, beautiful trees, wide encircling driveways, floral gardens and neatly trimmed hedges. Scheduled in the master plan of Sharon Memorial Park and to be built soon is a chapel and a lake.

Through a before-needed purchase plan, much sorrow and anxiety can be saved in time of bereavement to the many who have seen the advantages offered by Sharon Memorial Park. Sharon Memorial Park has proven to be a wonderful thing for the Jewish residents of Newton, for the Park is but a half hour's driving distance from the Newton City Hall—less than 19 miles.

Mr. Marmorek, vice president of Sharon Memorial Park, is also active in Newton civic and community organizations. Among the positions he holds are: chairman of the Newton District of the Combined Jewish Appeal, chairman of the membership committee of Brotherhood of Newton's Temple Emanuel, member of the Youth Committee and Boy Scout Troop 17, and member of Dalhousie Lodge, A.F. and A.M.

Service Bureau of Metropolitan Boston spoke on the problems of recruitment and placement, "for there are never enough volunteers to fill all the needs of the hospitals and social agencies." Mrs. Stanley W. Hobbs gave a graphic account of how the work of the volunteers in the Newton-Wellesley Hospital is organized, directed and coordinated.

Mrs. C. Faulker Kendall, assisted by Mrs. Harvey Kazmier, was the hostess for morning coffee. Mrs. Robert W. Moore Jr. and Mrs. Ruth Taylor were the pourers.

Rotary Club

The speaker at Monday's meeting was Raymond Green, principal of Newton High School, who was introduced by Harold Gores.

This is National Education Week. Education is the second largest business in Newton. Mr. Green has just returned from an 18,000 mile trip covering a period of a year. He has visited schools all over the country. Educational opportunities have greatly increased over the last thirty years, every one on an equal basis. The cost per pupil for a high school education has increased from $50 to $500. He stated that small communities should join in a high school, that is have one school for several communities. In New York the average teacher's pay is $3400, in Massachusetts it is $2900. The average pay for teachers in 1937, in Massachusetts, was rated 3rd, in 1949, 10th. 15 of total income is spent for education in Massachusetts. Requirements for teachers in Massachusetts are not strict enough. Mr. Green found that buildings in the south for teaching negroes have greatly improved.

60 percent of the graduating class in Newton go to college, and the drop out in Newton is very low.

Every one should visit the schools this week, National Education Week. Parents do not visit schools often enough.

PRIVACY for VISITORS

THE great inspiring dignity of owning a private family burial lot in Sharon Memorial Park gives visitors a feeling of pride, a sense of peace and comfort which is impossible to attain in old-type cemeteries.

At Sharon Memorial Park, there is no pushing through crowds, no public exhibitions of sorrow or devotion, no waiting or searching for grave sites. Sharon Memorial Park, the first all-Jewish cemetery of its kind in New England, will, through the generations of the future, stand as a fitting and perfect tribute to the devotion we bear for our dear ones.

Plan a visit to Sharon Memorial Park with your family. See for yourself why so many foresighted Jewish families in your own community have already purchased family burial lots in this beautiful garden-type cemetery which presents "the better way."

ELEMENTARY

RICE SCHOOL

A First Grader Speaks
Although the most important thing in the first grade is learning to read and write, we are also doing some very interesting things in science. We plant seeds and put bulbs in the ground. We have been doing a lot of things in art such as drawing and painting pictures, pasting, cutting, and clay modeling. At Halloween we made Jack-O-Lanterns and other things. We are learning to live together, to share things, and have order and neatness. We learn good health habits such as bringing Dental certificates. We are learning to follow directions and how to do things in our homes, such as setting the table. We all seem to be having a good time in the first grade.

What School Did For Me

When I first came to school I was very bashful. My mother thought that I would never get over it. When I was in the lower grades, I would never want to get in front of a class and tell stories.

My school activities helped me to mix in with other children. They taught me to be a good sport. This is why I think Emerson School has done a lot for me.

Susan Thinks This is a Very Good Way of Explaining World "Isms"

The end of current society is being predicted in the following fable:

Four men, a Fascist, a Capitalist, a Communist and a Trade Unionist were sailing in a boat when it suddenly went down. When it was down, the Capitalist tried to hold onto too many of his belongings. Next went the Fascist. He kept raising one arm in a stiff salute which hampered his swimming. Presently the Communist went under. He was so busy shouting propaganda that his mouth kept filling with water. Last went the Trade Unionist. He was swimming nicely until he heard a whistle blow. Then he sank.

SCIENCE AT WARREN

by Dick O'Laughlin

In our Science class at Warren Junior High School we have recently conducted our first experiment.

Mr. Penny, our Science teacher, has instructed us to perform all of our work in a scientific manner. That is, the way in which a true scientist does things. The order in which we should work is as follows; set up our problems, assemble our apparatus, go about our procedure, make observations, form a conclusion, and state an application or use of the experiment. Better results would be attained if we applied this method to most of our problems.

The main purpose of our first experiment was to show a physical and chemical change by using heat. The apparatus with which we work was Mercuric Oxide (Hg O.), a test tube, test tube holder, bunsen burner, crucible, and wooden splints.

A physical change was shown by a change in color of the HgO and no apparent chemical change. A chemical change had taken place because the solid HgO had changed to the liquid mercury and to the gas oxygen. Further proof of this is in the equation: 2 HgO plus heat equals 2 HgO plus O<sub>2</sub> plus heat.

STRIKES AND THE PUBLIC

James Goddard tries to answer some questions on this subject.

1. Should there be a law to stop strikes?
I do not think there should be a law to stop strikes because the pay would go down until the people would be little more than slaves. The working conditions would also be put down and if the men went on strike the law would force them back to work and before long we would have a dictator.

2. If Congress put a fixed wage would the people revolt?
I think the people would revolt because you have a right to get a good wage and it would also mean the changing of a president into a dictator.

3. If the people went on strike in all the factories wouldn't it ruin our country?
I think it would and it would also give Russia if they wanted it a chance to declare war and perhaps if the people stayed on strike Russia might overrun our country.

4. If the employers got together and gave better working conditions and better pay would it stop strikes?
I think it would for a short time because the employers would raise the prices on all their products and in a very short time strikes would break out because the people when they finished shopping due to the higher prices would have less than before the strike.

5. Do the labor unions help the workers and if they do in what way?
Labor unions help workers

CAPITALISM

by Mary Keenan

Capitalism is an economic system which believes that the production and distribution of goods should be for private profit. Everywhere that you purchase anything in America an example of capitalism is illustrated. In the morning when you buy a paper from the newsboy, at the corner grocery store, or in the large automobile factory where hundreds of people are employed, our American system of free enterprise is pictured. We believe that as long as a person has the desire and ability to go into business for himself, he has a perfect right to do so.

At the present time experts believe that there never can be a totally capitalistic nation, because so many laws and regulations have been made to protect the workers and their rights.

These precautions have been taken because when the idea of capitalism first came into effect, many owners thought of nothing but profit; making working conditions, wages, and benefits very scant. At the present time, however, companies must provide for the employee through the demands of a labor union.

Many nations think that capitalism is not a good idea, but in the United States it is very successful.

WE STUDY WORLD "ISMS"

by Ann Spencer

In October the III-A pupils of Warren Junior High School devoted an entire week in executing a social studies project of their choice.

The Friday before we were to start work, each pupil brought into class an outline of the project they planned to fulfill which the teacher either approved or disapproved. Several of the broad fields which they might cover consisted of: communism, fascism, capitalism, totalitarianism, democracy, and labor.

At the end of a week's work in the classroom the projects were handed in and were marked according to the amount of information accumulated, the quality of the work, and what each member of the class got out of his project. This was found out by a brief interview with Mr. Learson, the teacher.

In summary, I'd like to say that I think this is an excellent undertaking for everyone participating, and I know each student got more out of their project than any text-book explanation could give them.

DEMOCRACY

by Mary Keenan

A political democracy is a system of government where the people and their wishes are the first consideration. We here in America govern ourselves by these beliefs:

A. Anyone should be allowed to run for office, voice his political belief, and form an opposing party.

B. Everyone should be allowed to own a private enterprise, for his profit, and to make his living in any field that he desires.

C. The right to practice the Four Freedoms.

D. Freedom from unreasonable seizure and unjust punishment.

In many people's estimation the most complete definition of democracy was given by Abraham Lincoln when he said, "Government of the people, by the people, and for the people." The American people, under the direction of the leaders they elect, try to the best of their ability to govern themselves by that quotation.

"ISMS" BOILED DOWN

by Richard Morse

When Richard Morse saw these definitions of the different "isms" he thought they were factually and humorously stated.

A student of modern trends in political economy reaches the following brief conclusions on governments.

Socialism—You have two cows you give one to your neighbor. Communism—You have two cows you give both of them to the government; the government gives you the milk.

Fascism—You keep the cows, give the milk to the government and the government sells it back to you.

Nazism—You have two cows; the government shoots you and takes the cows.

New Dealism—The government shoots one cow, milks the other and pours the milk down the sewer.

Capitalism—You sell one cow and buy a bull.

WHAT DEMOCRACY IS

by Helen Skenderian

Democracy is a wonderful system under which everyone has an equal chance to benefit.

The meaning of the word itself originates from two Greek words; demos, meaning people, and Krates, meaning to rule. Therefore, the meaning must be, and is, rule by the people.

What is rule by the people? It is when those born of the lowest income groups can raise themselves to the highest by hard work. It means that although the majority rules, the minority have the right to voice their opinions. Everyone has the right to cast his vote, no matter how large or how small. You can achieve much or little, depending on your ambitions. Democracy may have its faults as a government, but I'd rather live in a democracy than any other government in the world.

SOCIALISM

by Mary Keenan

Socialism means production and distribution for use instead of profit. The most successful nations that believe in socialism are Britain, Sweden, Norway, and Australia.

This system is one of the main branches of democracy. Many people have the idea that socialism and communism teach the same things. This is very wrong. The only connection between the two is that they both are against private enterprise. Socialists believe that everyone should live on approximately the same level. No one should gain anything without everybody profiting and advancing also. Socialists teach that all men are equal and that they should live accordingly. Enterprises that are run for private profit are not encouraged and in some countries are not allowed. Another difference between socialism and communism is the socialists believe in democratic politics and communists do not. By democratic politics I mean that all affairs concerning the government or officials is conducted by parliamentary means. All the people vote for their leaders and representatives are sent to form the national government.

The two men who first thought of this idea were Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels. They were also the originators of communism, but socialism, so far, seems to far surpass communism in what it does for the good of its country and its people.

WHY I WOULDN'T LIVE IN A COMMUNIST COUNTRY

by Helen Skenderian

In a communist country the individual exists only for the good of the state. In a democracy the state is an instrument for the welfare of the individual.

Power in a communist country is centered around a dictator of a minority party who demands blind obedience.

In a democracy springs from the people themselves who have the right to make the rules and change them at will for their own benefits.

The communist state is a welfare state and because no dissent, criticism, personal choice or opinion is tolerated it is also a police state.

DAY

by Neil Todd

For this half of the year we are taking a course in Graphic Arts, and I myself think it is very interesting. We are taught the fundamentals of printing such as: the setting of type; working a press; making a pad; setting gauge pins, and many other phases of printing. Mr. Frye, our teacher, assigned jobs to us such as: a memo pad which includes printing and padding; a two-color job in which you run a cut of some type in one color, and then run a background in another color, and so on. Graphic Arts is a good introduction to anyone who wants to take a trade school course and then later go into printing as a business.

Physical Education in

Frank A. Day

I think that anyone who enjoys any kind of athletic games would certainly enjoy the sports that we have in physical education. We learn how to play such games as Norwegian kikkball, and others. Norwegian kikkball, and others.

We play on apparatus. The apparatus consists of rings, ropes and horses of two sizes. On rainy or snowy days, we sometimes have square dances which I think most people love. We all work together to make good teams and then we compete against the other grades, and finally end up with a field day at some other school to compete against their team. We thus develop skill in gymnastics, strong bodies and good sportsmanship.

The Art Studio Periods

The art studio periods at Frank Ashley Day Junior High School are periods on certain days each week in which anyone is allowed to work. The purpose of the art studio is to help you earn extra credit or raise your mark in English, Social studies and any of your other subjects. Miss Hinckley, the art teacher, is there to help supply ideas or suggestions and assist you in any way she can. Each period is forty minutes full of fun and honest to goodness work. Ten minutes at the end of the period is devoted to picking and cleaning up all the materials which you have used. You find that in such a short time as thirty minutes you can accomplish quite a bit of work.

BIGELOW

BIGELOW JUNIOR HIGH

by Joseph Carven

The Bigelow Shop is one of the favorite places in the school. It gives the boys a variety of work. A few of the things a boy is able to do are woodworking, metal working, electricity, plumbing, and printing. The main object of the shop is for boys to learn to do odd jobs around the house.

In the shop you can make interesting things, such as a compass, electromagnet, door stop, tie rack, or a cookie cutter. All of these jobs are very interesting. I am sure that anyone who had the opportunity to attempt any of this work, if not all of it, would enjoy the course.

WEEKS

WEEKS JUNIOR HIGH

Social Studies at Weeks Jr. High School

by Jane Albertson

I consider Social Studies a valuable means of developing abilities that are essential in the make up of a well-rounded individual.

Through Social Studies we are given a chance to acquire ease while speaking before a group, as all of our many class discussions are informal, and usually a pupil is the reader.

Most of our work is planned by pupils and teachers together. We spend much time talking, as a group, about what we would like to do for the improvement of the school, and then committees are organized to look into the matter more deeply.

After a unit of study is completed we evaluate ourselves in terms of what we learned, and what suggestions could be made for improving the next unit.

These are only a few of the many things we accomplish in Social Studies.

THE STUDY OF HEREDITY

by Cecilia Swift

Our study of Heredity over a period of two months has proved to be interesting and educational. We started our study by using Gregor Mendel's findings as a foundation, and continued our work from there. We learned from Mendel's experiments that nature has provided for certain characteristics to be passed from one generation to another in an orderly way.

We then discovered that people inherit certain capacities. However we usually do not reach them to a full 100 per cent.

Charts were made to bring to light our capacities and how we were measured up to them. This was done to help us to realize how improvements could be made in our daily life. On the chart, we used various sports, studies and our social attitudes.

Although a person may be born with the best of capacities, his environment is a decidedly important factor. A possible Einstein may turn out to be little more than an ordinary individual.

As we progressed our studies began to tie together Mendel's law, our capacities and our environment began to cast a light on our problems and give us possible clues on how to solve them.

Our topic, in my opinion, was very interesting and was well worth the time we devoted to it.

The trumpeter swan, once almost extinct, is gaining in numbers under protection. There are now about 90 in the Yellowstone Park area.

Newton Art Assn.

The Newton Art Association held a most enjoyable and enthusiastic meeting, Thursday evening, Nov. 3, at the Bonnar Studio. There were several new members present and much interest was shown in the different types of paintings brought in for discussion conducted by Mr. Bonnar. Conservative, cubist, abstract, impressionist and modern styles were shown in oil, watercolor and sculpture. Mrs. Eugene Little and Mrs. Laurence Washer were hostesses at the social hour.

At the next meeting which will be held on Nov. 17, Miss Priscilla Ordway, a well-known Newton artist, will give a travel talk on Guatemala and Mexico. Miss Ordway who is an art director for Brimmer and May School of Boston and Walnut Hill School of Natick, traveled with the International School of Art and spent four weeks in Guatemala. It should be a most interesting program.

Kris Kringle Bazaar to Be Held Next Friday

With banners flying and trumpets sounding the Kris Kringle Bazaar again moves into the Newton Highlands Congregational Church Friday, November 18. Mrs. James H. Zimmer and her decorations committee have used the Circus motif this year and eager shoppers will find the many lovely hand-made gifts and luscious home-made food in booths merrily festive with balloons and streamers. The Bazaar is under the able chairmanship of Mrs. Stephen C. Hung and Mrs. Edward Ovington. The clever and colorful posters about town were made by artistic members of the parish and almost every member of the church has had some part to play in this all-church activity.

The doors will open at 10 o'clock on Friday and all the articles for sale will be most reasonably priced. A Snack Bar at noon with Mrs. James F. Cooper and Mrs. Fred G. Sanford in charge, a Tea Room in the afternoon in the care of Mrs. Ralph Talley, and a Buffet Supper with Mrs. Robert Buchanan and Mrs. Ralph Morrison as chairman will take care of all hearty appetites.

The children will be well entertained, the youngest in a nursery under the expert care of Mrs. Edward Colton Jr., and the older ones at carefully selected movies under the direction of Mrs. Francis Tucker. A Circus Carousel will feature grabs for the children, all thoughtfully selected by Mrs. Lorenz F. Muther and Mrs. Blanton Wiggins. Mrs. Allston Budgell and Mrs. Kenneth Moir are in charge of the Toy Shoppe where beautifully dressed dolls and brightly colored toys are ready for early Christmas shoppers. The Children's Table will have many articles for thrifty mothers who may seek the advice of Mrs. Charles Fenton and Mrs. Howard Hulsman.

No Bazaar is complete without a Gift Shoppe, Knitted Booth, Handkerchief Booth, Garden Booth, Apron Table, Kitchen Gadgets and a Food and Candy Table. These are all generously filled with beautiful articles made by members and friends of the church and are for sale under the guidance of Mrs. Donald D. McKay, Mrs. M. Paul Hessler, Mrs. Walter G. Archibald, Mrs. Robert Jennings, Mrs. Dana Sylvester, Mrs. Herbert W. Kestle, Mrs. Clarence Churchill, Mrs. H. John Lucier, Mrs. Raymond Kennedy, Mrs. William Glover, Mrs.

Perry Wood, Mrs. Charles Fisher, Mrs. Fortunat Trole, Mrs. Robert Foote and Mrs. Duncan Coting.

Something new has been added with a Book Stall by Mrs. Ralph Thompson and a Post Office, parcel post articles for sale, by Mrs. Francis Searway. A Teen-Age Shop run by the Highlanders, a young adult group, will feature many innovations. A palmist, imported from outside the parish, will mystify all those who wish to have their palms read.

During the lull between supper and the evening entertainment an all-church orchestra under the direction of Mrs. Catherine Abele will furnish music. Mrs. Frederic Grootsema is chairman of the Evening Show and although most of it is to be a surprise, it will be highly entertaining with a cast of all ages drawn from all groups in the church.

When the whole affair is over at 10 o'clock, there will be hardly a member of the church who has not contributed in some way, large or small, to this annual Bazaar which is in the capable hands of the Women's Association and to whom the proceeds go for their wise and generous help to the Newton Highlands Congregational Church.

Junior Auxiliary St. Mary's Church

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 2, the Junior Auxiliary of St. Mary's Church was privileged to hear Miss Knox, of the Florence Crittenton Maternity Home, speak about the work done at the home. One of the most interesting points of her talk was the fact that girls who come to them are not only girls who have been deprived, neglected and unloved in their homes, but also those who have been completely spoiled by overindulgent parents. Parents who give their children everything they ask for, and more, may be doing more harm than those who love their children but can give them very little in material things. After her talk, Miss Knox was besieged by questions from her interested listeners. Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Bowen of Newton Lower Falls and Mrs. Anthony DeJon of Wellesley Hills.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, November 16, at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. Everett Burdick, 37 Grayson lane, Newton Lower Falls.

Newton Centre Garden Club

The Newton Centre Garden Club will meet Tuesday, November 15 at 10 o'clock at the Newton Centre Woman's Club.

Mr. Allen H. Wood Jr., will speak on "A Garden Clinic."

Coffee will be served by the hospitality committee with Mrs. Clifton Curtis, chairman and Mrs. Spencer Williams, co-chairman. Assisting will be Mrs. Bristol Nelson, Mrs. John Underhill, Mrs. F. Hopewell Underhill, Mrs. A. E. Bentley, Mrs. S. L. Sholley, Mrs. Charles Dean, and Mrs. William L. Cummings.

Social Science Club

The club will meet Wednesday morning, November 16 at 10 o'clock. A paper will be read by Mrs. Allen P. Joslin on "Fine Arts."

The hostesses will be Miss Elizabeth Fuller and Mrs. Joseph Powers.

Outlines Plan to Prepare Car for Winter Driving

A thorough check of the cooling system prior to adding antifreeze is a major step in preparing your car for winter driving, according to L. L. Pierce, national service manager of Ford Division, Ford Motor Company.

"Thousands of motorists lose their antifreeze every year through boiling away or leakage simply because they failed to take this precaution at the start of the season," Mr. Pierce explained.

"Not only should the hose lines and connections be thoroughly checked for leaks, but the radiator and the entire cooling system should be flushed out removing the sludge and dirty water, which prevents free circulation."

"Starting assurance" for your car despite freezing weather can be gained if the motorist also observes these few additional precautions:

1. Keep the battery fully charged and charging. A fully-charged battery will not freeze in temperatures ordinarily encountered, but a very low battery may freeze and burst the case open at temperatures not much below 32 degrees F. See that the generator regulator is working properly.

2. At the approach of cold weather, the crankcase should be drained, flushed and refilled with the correct grade of oil for the coldest weather you expect during the winter. Ford recommends use of SAE 10 or 10W oil in below freezing weather and 10W with one pint of kerosene added in extreme cold (colder than 10 below zero).

3. See if the engine needs a tuneup to insure quick starting.

4. If the manufacturer recommends it, change to winter grease in transmission and differential. (No change is necessary for 1949 Fords.)

5. Have brakes checked for winter driving and be sure that tires are not worn so dangerously smooth they will make driving on icy roads doubly hazardous.

"Careful motorists will drive slowly until the engine reaches normal operating temperatures," Pierce said. "And by keeping the fuel tank full as much of the time as possible, they will prevent condensation of moisture and resultant freezing-up of the gas line. A good plan is to fill the gas tank at the end of the day's driving, rather than at the start."

Education And Research Grants For Cancer Study

Two additional research and education grants totalling $7250 and re-election of Dr. Charles C. Lund of Boston as President, have been announced by the Massachusetts division, American Cancer Society.

A grant of $1250 was awarded to the Massachusetts Medical Society to help establish a "pilot" clinic in a Boston teaching hospital to test a mass screening program for cancer, heart disease, diabetes, tuberculosis and other disease enemies of man. The American Cancer Society grant will be directed toward establishment of the cancer screening processes.

The Commission is cooperating to make the week a success locally and reminds the public that some of these books will make appropriate Christmas gifts.

Three-Quarter Coats, All Fur or Fur-Trimmed, Lead Season's Styles

BELICIANO TAKES TO THE SHORT AND FLARED in a marvelous little topper of Forstmann's taupe alpaca fleecy. A vast, widely lapped fur collar, with patch pockets set at a soft angle, curved and cuffed. Luxuriously lined with nutria.

The important fur fashion of the year is the three-quarter coat, 34 to 40 inches long, that looks right with any skirt length and smart on every figure. The leading silhouette is straight in front with a four-or-five-flare back that falls from the shoulder in graceful folds.

Collars are small, gently rolled or upstanding. Sleeves are straight with moderate fullness and the majority have small, turned-back, or novelty cuffs.

Many fur coats are shown with belts, or can be worn either belted or full. A distinctively new fur fashion is a collarless, Mandarin-styled, coat with side slits and kimono-type sleeves.

Genuine mink—and its popular-priced counterpart, mink-dyed muskrat—highlight the entire fur fashion picture, not only for coats themselves, but as trimmings on coats of other furs. Black Persian lamb coats with collars, sleeve trims or buttons of mink appear in all the leading collections. Luxurious-looking, yet within reach of the average purse, is smart and serviceable Jap mink. Mink and the mink-type furs take precedence over all others for jackets and capes as well as full-length coats.

Staging a strong come-back for the 1949-50 winter season is genuine Alaskan sealskin that has no equal for warmth and wear. It is shown in warm-toned browns as well as black, and—for something really new and exciting—is even dyed in navy blue! The young business woman or college girl will continue to bet on the good looks and sturdiness of mouton. Gray Chinese kidskin is another serviceable fur in the budget-class that is sure to find favor with the junior set.

Grey squirrel, is being rediscovered for its softness, flattery and richness; and squirrel, dyed to resemble sable or mink ranks among the season's favorites. Again available at moderate prices, silver-blue and natural muskrat will have a strong appeal to the woman who wants a smart and practical coat to wear

Lewis Carroll; Arabian Nights, III, by Earl Goodenow; Bambi, by Felix Salten; Merry Adventures of Robin Hood, The, by Howard Pyle; Prince and the Pauper, The, by Mark Twain.

Grades Seven to Nine: Adventures of Johnny Appleseed, by Henry Chapin; Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, by Mark Twain; Adventures of Tom Sawyer, by Mark Twain; Anne of Green Gables, by L. H. Montgomery; Call of the Wild, by Jack London; Gulliver's Travels, by Jonathan Swift; Hoosier School Boy, The, by Edward Eggleston; Ken Ward in the Jungle, by Zane Grey; Knute Rockne, by Harry A. Stulderer; Little Men, by Louisa M. Alcott; Little Women, by Louisa M. Alcott; My Friend the Dog, by Albert P. Terhune; White Fang, by Jack London.

1950 Ford Line, Passenger Cars To Go On Display

The 1950 Ford line of passenger cars, with scores of improvements, was made public today by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company.

"The progress that has been made in performance, economy, safety, comfort and appearance will again mark the 1950 Ford as the car of the year," according to L. D. Cruise, vice-president and general manager, Ford Division.

The new Fords will be on display in the showrooms of 6,400 Ford dealers throughout the nation starting November 18.

All improvements in the 1950 Fords have been geared to offer even greater quality than was offered in the high quality 1949 Fords.

The new features embody improvements throughout the entire car—in the engine, the body, the seats, doors, frame, trunk, fabrics, instrument panel, brakes, floors and elsewhere.

The '50 Fords will be offered in two lines—the Custom DeLuxe and the lower-priced DeLuxe series. A full range of body styles will be available, including station wagons and convertibles. Ford will continue to offer the choice of two engines—the 100-horsepower V-8 and the 95-horsepower Six.

Styling of the 1950 car, although not radically changed because of the wide public acceptance of the modern design of the Fords, nevertheless includes several distinctive features to enrich the appearance.

A colorful new crest, derived from an authentic coat of arms dating back to 17th century England, appears on the front of the hood and center of the trunk lid. This is the first crest that has ever appeared on Ford cars.

Temporary antennae made of foil attached to balloons are being used to determine the best height and direction for permanent television antennae.

Junior Red Cross Aiding National Enrollment Drive

It is anticipated that 11,000 students in Newton will participate in the Junior Enrollment Drive, according to Mrs. Riley Hampton, Director of the Newton Junior Red Cross. Junior Red Cross has contributed substantially to a wide variety of community and Red Cross activities ranging from Staff Aides to Gift boxes for Children in Foreign lands to Writing desks for the crippled children in the Peabody Home, to participating in the training camps at Wellesley to making favors, games, tables, lamps and giving service at Cushing Veterans Hospital.

To the question Why Enroll? Mrs. Hampton pointed to the Junior Red Cross Program based on "The desire to help in building world friendship and help others in less fortunate countries, as well as in our own country and community."

Junior Red Cross provides a link between American Children and their contemporaries in other countries. The National Education Association has designated Junior Red Cross as the best route through which school children and young people could send aid and friendship to youth in other countries. The network of Red Cross Societies all over the world makes possible the exchange of accurate information to those who need and those who can give. The program is made possible through the Junior Red Cross members and the tireless efforts of the Teacher

Sponsors. The needs of the children in other countries are met through Gift boxes, Health supplies, School chests, educational supplies, clothing and sewing materials, shoes, multilith equipment and paper, playground equipment, equipment for orthopedic instruction, candy, soft toys, vitamin tablets, etc.

Interpretation to the youth of other lands of specific parts of American life is done through the International Art Program. Music album exchange acquaints other children with our history, customs, dress and ideas.

It isn't classical, it isn't popular, it isn't be-bop. It won't even be heard, generally, by the public. But it is a very real part of the new operator-dialing system of placing long distance telephone calls. A part that will help complete most long distance calls in an average of less than a minute—two or three times as fast as at present.

In the Telephone Company's new Franklin Street building in Boston, and in many other New England telephone exchanges, "Long Distance" will make an important change this month in her method of handling calls. She will begin to "dial" calls her method of handling calls. She will begin to "dial" calls her method of handling calls. She will begin to "dial" calls her method of handling calls.

The operators' keys are, of course, only a tiny part of a very complicated electronic system developed by the Bell Telephone Laboratories and manufactured by the Western Electric Company. It has been installed by our own technicians in complex arrangements of switches and relays through many floors of the new Long Distance building. It will provide the fastest long distance service that New England has ever known.

A Few Reflections on Football Season

Spaghetti Dinner Touchdown

By DOROTHY JAMES

One of the nicest things about this season of the year, with the trees in their wine and gold garb presenting a striking picture of autumn splendor, is that it gives us an opportunity to cheer on our favorite football teams and to renew old acquaintances.

Frequent get-togethers develop spontaneously as we wind our way out of the stadium or football field in the crisp twilight of the late afternoon, some of them providing as much real pleasure as the games themselves.

It's the wise hostess—whether she be the new bride of a football-minded college alumnus or the teen-age friend of a gridiron hero—who plans her after-the-game snacks before she even leaves for the game.

If she does, she, too, will be able to join in the fun when the hungry football enthusiasts arrive to dwell upon the touchdowns that were scored, the brilliant runs through the broken field and the dazzling forward passes.

Here are a few suggestions that will need only last-minute touching-up.

Egg "Football"

Place egg in saucepan and add enough cold water to cover the egg 1-4 inch over the top. Heat water rapidly to boiling. Remove immediately from heat; cover; let stand in cold water for 15 minutes. Plunge eggs into cold running water; put in refrigerator. Before serving, remove shells, and make football seams and laces from thin strips of pimento which have been cut and placed in the refrigerator when the eggs were prepared.

Cheese Frankburgers

Heat the tender franks and place in long split buns which have been spread with mustard. Top each frank with a slice of cheese. Broil from three to five minutes, about three inches from the broiler flame. Spread the cut edge with pickle relish and serve.

Coleslaw served in paper cups will make a hit with this menu. Top the meal off with individual pumpkin pies. Have a heaping bowl of whipped cream on the serving table and let the guests cover their pie with this delicacy.

Harvest Punch

Make an oversized football of crepe paper; fit it around a wire frame and set your punch bowl, filled with following recipe, inside.

2 cups boiling water
8 teaspoons tea
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 cups orange juice
1 cup lemon juice
2 cups concord grape juice
2 quarts boiling water
Orange and lemon slices for garnish.

Pour 2 cups boiling water over tea. Steep five minutes. Strain and dissolve sugar in warm liquid. Add fruit juices and remaining boiling water. Garnish with orange and lemon slices. Serve at once while hot.

(30 small punch glass servings).

Brighten That Corner

I would appreciate it very much if you would help me out in selecting draperies and slipcovers for our living room. The wallpaper is a pale aqua, gray with a touch of peach; rug is blue with black, rose and yellow. Sofa is plain gray and one lounge chair is lipstick red. In the future we hope to carpet the downstairs. What color and design would be best?

...We recently added a porch off the dining room and a door had to be put in so we must paper or paint the walls. What do you suggest in color and design? Rug is taupe with floral design of rose and pale green. Woodwork is white but needs repainting. Would appreciate other suggestions lamps, pillows, etc.

Mrs. W. J. H.

Your colors are rather difficult to combine—the aqua probably fights the blue; the rose and red may clash. If you are planning a color scheme that will go with new carpeting, which could be gray, a great part of the problem will be solved when you take rose, blue and taupe out of the picture.

Try to get a companion paper for the dining room—perhaps a gray and white scheme in aqua and white geometric print. In that event draperies for both rooms could be plain pearl gray or pale aqua.

Assuming that the peach in the wallpaper is too faint to conflict with yellow, the davenport could be covered in a stripe of turquoise and yellow; the chair in plain yellow. Have deep turquoise lamps; small accessories in red to coordinate the scheme when you wish to leave the red chair uncovered.

You might like to change the dining room chair seats to lipstick red also. Perhaps it would be best to keep the woodwork white.

We are moving to a new home. Our rug is an allover floral, deep rose, tan and brown on a beige background. Davenport and chair are maroon. The other chair must be recovered—what do you suggest? What for wallpaper and drapes? Furniture is mahogany so we must have brightness in this room. What kind of trim for our lamp shades?

Mrs. M. G.

The size of the room and the exposure should have a bearing on the color scheme you select, but green sounds like a good choice for the walls. Choose a plain or textured paper that will permit you to have figured draperies. These could be in various pinks, greens and brown with white. You may want cornices—we'd like to suggest brown but the maroon furniture interferes.

Have the chair in a bold rose floral or a stripe of beige and rose or green. If you feel that the maroon furniture doesn't harmonize with the brown in the rug, you might eventually slipcover the davenport in plain chocolate brown with matching fringe, the chair in a brown and white print. The two, grouped together with a vivid rose lamp, would make a picturesque grouping.

If you keep the maroon furniture as it is, add maroon ruching to your lamp shades.

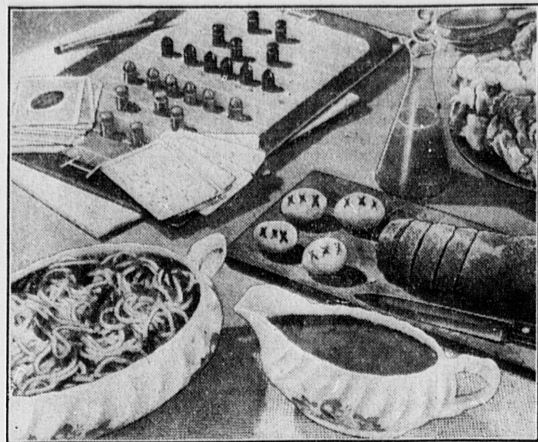

I have an 11 by 17 north bedroom with wine floral carpet. I would like to paint three walls and paper one. We also want to cut our headboard down and cover it with leather—what color? I would like to paint a chair and cover it in chintz, and to lacquer two end tables. At present there is a pink cornice over three windows. Please give me a good suggestion for colors.

Mrs. R. W.

Three walls in warm pink, the fourth in pink and gray would be nice with the wine rug. Have the window walls plain so that you can use draperies in white, pink, lilac and green. The bedspread could be gray-green; the headboard gray or burgundy.

Paint the chair and tables deep rich burgundy and cover the chair in a stripe of green and gray. If you're tired of the pink cornice, paint that burgundy also.

My problem is my living room walls. At present they are papered in gray background with stripes of maroon. Woodwork is white. Paper is new and clean but I'd like something more modern. I was thinking of painting the walls dark green. My furnishings are Swedish modern: blonde desk with red and black Chinese lamp and chartreuse shade; two-piece gray set; blonde radio with red, black Chinese figure lamp and Ming

YOU CAN SCORE YOUR OWN TOUCHDOWN that will have your guests cheering if you will serve a big dish of spaghetti with a savory chef's sauce, all piping hot, a toasted salad, crisp-crusted bread and butter, coffee and fruit. Doughnuts or a big cake would add a substantial note to your menu.

The spaghetti will be an easy assignment. It can be cooked while your guests are taking off hats and coats; and while it's cooking you can open and heat as many 8-ounce cans as you need of canned spaghetti sauce. This sauce, seasoned with all the artful skill of a chef, is made both with meat and with mushrooms. It's ready to serve as soon as it's hot. If there is any wait for supper, your guests can work out their own theories of football if you give them a game of Pigskin to play with. And you can add an authentic note to your luscious refreshments by serving the cheese in the form of footballs.

Cheese Footballs

Roll soft yellow cheese, about a tablespoonful at a time, into oval balls. Crease a line along one side of each ball and crisscross with three or four x-shaped slashes with a small knife. Dip a clean water-color paintbrush in a little dark food coloring, wipe the brush until almost dry on a paper napkin, and lightly color the crisscross lines.

Tree decorations; raspberry armless chair and ottoman, white fringe trimmed; plastic and glass end tables with figured lamps in various shades, green, pink, black. Draperies are gray with dark green floral and red floral design. Rug is gray with deep red and green flowers. Walls are paneled in white; ceiling molding is white also. Would the cell be green or white.

Mrs. J. H.

Dark green walls paneled in white would be an ideal background for your furniture. If the room is light enough, it could stand a matching green ceiling, but you might also consider white or a rather pale shade of chartreuse. In any event, bring a little more chartreuse into the scheme—you can do it in accessories.

Recently we sold our home after having it completely redecorated. We have purchased a new home and will have pretty much the same color scheme but for new carpeting.

Wallpaper is pink and white stripe; drapes white with large pink roses and green stems. Sofa and chair are green; two chairs are yellow leather; two have brown backgrounds with chartreuse flowers. Two large lamps have white shades; two smaller lamps are yellow Chinese figurines with green shades. Small accessories are yellow.

We had rose and white carpeting, and green cornices. What would you suggest to make it a little different? A friend suggested chartreuse but I doubt if I could get it. Would a floral be too much?

Mrs. J.

Why don't you select gray sculptured carpeting for a pleasant change of scenery? Then if you decide later to change the walls and possibly can use the draperies in a bedroom, you could alter the entire scheme by having yellow, green and gray in walls and draperies.

The deepest green of the draperies would still be our choice cornices. Perhaps you can add an inexpensive deep green rushing to the white lamp shades.

We have a very large master bedroom 21x14. It is papered cheerfully with bright pink gladioli on a white background. We have a blonde bedroom suite. Now we have white ruffled curtains, white spread and white throw rugs which I'd like to change. Lampshades are green. What would you advise for a new rug, drapes, spread and lampshades?

Another big bedroom has large yellow roses on white background; rug is rust; twin beds and vanity are painted chartreuse. What color for curtains, spreads and lamp shades?

Mrs. J. C.

You could dress the windows in the master bedroom very attractively by leaving the ruffled curtains and installing plain rich burgundy draperies over the edge of the curtains and on the wall about 12 inches. Have a burgundy scalloped cornice over the entire unit. The bedspread could match; rugs and lamps could be aqua or gray-green.

In the second bedroom you could have ruffled yellow organza curtains with brown cornices; plain brown bedspread and rust shades for the lamps. True chartreuse and yellow are too much

L-Shaped House Is Attractive, Convenient

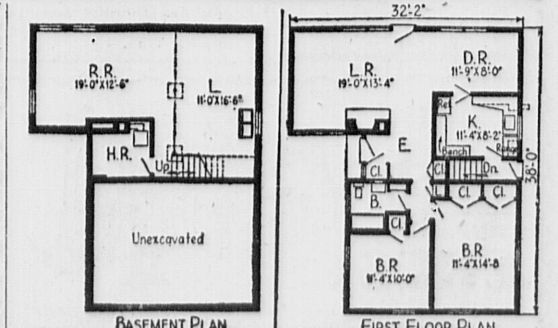

The L-shaped house is a modern favorite because it combines a friendly, appealing appearance with maximum convenience of living. This example has been chosen by American Builder, the leading building magazine, as its Plan No. 33.

The living and dining rooms extend across the rear of the house, enabling the back yard to be used as an outdoor living area. A wide entrance hall separates the bedrooms from the living quarters, insuring privacy and quiet.

Architect Walter T. Anicka of Ann Arbor, Mich., designed a roof with simple but effective lines. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles, selected by the architect because of their fire-resistance, economy and the many solid and blended colors available.

Exterior walls could be faced with either wood siding or shingles. For contrast, plywood is specified for the gable ends.

The basement under the rear portion of the house has space for a recreation room as well as for heating and laundry equipment. A garage could be added on the end of the house near the kitchen.

Area of the house is 1,028 square feet, a figure useful in estimating construction costs. A 50-foot lot would be sufficient.

(Detailed estimating plans and a complete home planning packet of building information are available from American Builder, 30 Church St., New York 7, N. Y. Refer to Plan 33.)

Auburndale Real Estate Office Opened

The Auburndale Realty Company this week announced the opening of a new office in the Taylor Block, Auburndale, with M. H. Nahigian as manager.

Mr. Nahigian started in the real estate business about 25 years ago with James H. Henderson. The office he is opening in Auburndale is new but he is well known in real estate and insurance fields and has been especially interested in commercial and investment property during the past few years and his experience in homes is also well known. During the depression, he was connected with the office of Henderson & Ross, appraisers of closed bank properties, Owners Loan Corporation, banks and insurance companies. In 1937 he left Henderson to go into a business of his own. In the past year, he joined the Boston Real Estate Board of Realtors and shortly intends to join the New Board as a realtor. He has been a member of the Insurance Brokers Board for the past year.

Now that his son has decided to go into the real estate business, Mr. Nahigian decided to open an office with him. His son graduated from Harvard University this past June and while at Harvard, was a letterman in baseball.

Fund Campaign Up to 82 Percent of Quota

Following the Final Report Night of the Residential Division at their Bank headquarters Monday, the Newton Red Feather Campaign reached $245,665 or 82% of the goal. This is the amount reported at the Report Luncheon of the United Community Services in Boston on Tuesday, and although all Divisions and workers made valiant efforts over the week-end to bring Newton's percentage total higher than Brookline's so that Newton might win in the contest between the two communities, Brookline maintained its lead with 89%, and Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton Campaign Chairman, is making plans to give the Brookline Chairman a wheelbarrow ride in Brookline later this month.

The Manufacturing Division, under the leadership of its Chairman, Murray E. Sholkin, is the first Division to go over 100%. This achievement came largely through increased participation of employee giving. The Mercantile Women's Division, Mrs. John M. Powell, Chairman, and the Municipal Schools Division, Wesley S. Merritt, Chairman, are both very close to 100%. The Municipal General Division—C. Evan Johnson, Chairman—has passed 90%, with Residential, Advance Gifts, and Mercantile Men's Divisions fast approaching 90%.

For the first time in Community Fund history a complete report night of the Greater Boston Red Feather Campaign will be held over the air tonight between 10 and 10:30 p.m. on WHDH and WCOP. Community Chairmen will make their reports, and the progress of the Campaign will be announced. Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton Campaign Chairman, will give the totals of additional amounts that are received in Newton beyond the amount already reported.

Every effort has been made by the Red Feather Campaign workers in Newton to call on every family and place of business in the city, but it is quite possible that many individuals may have been missed. If you have not been solicited, won't you mail your subscription to the Newton Community Chest, 93 Union Street, Newton Centre 59, or call LA 5-1210 so that arrangements can be made to have someone call on you.

The Greater Boston Campaign will close with a "Dutch Treat" dinner at the Hotel Statler Tuesday evening, November 15, and

Newton's "Army" Quota Now Within Reach

At a recent meeting, Dwight Colburn, general chairman for Newton of the Salvation Army appeal for funds, revealed that contributions in the past week have stepped up to a total that places the local quota of $20,000 within reach.

"All we need now," said Mr. Colburn, "is the final determined push to get us over the hump. By that I mean the extra effort by volunteer workers to visit any homes so far not called on; and, on the part of contributors, an equal urge to put Newton over the top, and so reaffirm our reputation as a city that always 'comes through' in any civic project. It would be too bad," added Mr. Colburn, "to stop short of complete success, particularly as we are so close to our goal. The Salvation Army deserves our full support. And I am convinced Newton is going to demonstrate again that it is backing that worthy organization to the limit."

Another point brought out by Mr. Colburn is that by meeting our quota, we will receive the predetermined amount required for purely local needs. "It should not be overlooked," Mr. Colburn said, "that this allotment increases proportionately as our total collections increase. In other words, the greater the total of contributions, the greater becomes that local fund. And it need hardly be said that our Newton Fund Committee, which provides help for families in want, can use to advantage every extra dollar placed in its hands."

Pillsbury at City Hall, in the absence of Mayor Lockwood, after which he appeared at an Assembly at Newton High School. M. Lui, who was introduced by Mr. Floyd Rinker, explained to 1000 high school students the reason for Swiss neutrality based on the existence in that country of three separate national regions—one under French influence, one under German and one under Italian. He also spoke of the country's natural resources and its ability to raise only one-third of the nation's food supply. Following the assembly, M. Lui was entertained at a buffet luncheon prepared by the prefect group, where he spoke informally with members of the School Department and student leaders.

The electric light and power industry in New England will have spent more than half a billion dollars for new construction between the end of the war and 1952, to keep up with the increasing use of electricity in this area, according to Avery R. Schiller, Chairman of the Electric Coordinating Council of New England.

The Council is a voluntary association of executives of electric light and power companies of New England. It was formed at the beginning of World War II, at the request of governmental authorities, in order that the combined resources of the companies could be used most advantageously in the national emergency then existing. It has continued since the war to coordinate planning in the interest of adequate and efficient service at the lowest possible cost.

Newest Telephone Developments to Be Exhibited to Public

Conducted tours through operating floors and a special exhibit to demonstrate newest telephone developments will feature open house at the new Long Distance Building of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, 185 Franklin street, Boston, on business days starting this week and continuing through December 2, except Saturdays and November 28. Visiting hours each day will be from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The building houses the regional operating center which was placed in service last Sunday to permit telephone operators in Boston and many other New England cities to dial long distance calls. Tours with trained guides will afford views of the dial-switching equipment and of operators working at the switchboards.

Dialing by these operators in the Franklin street building is not the familiar procedure of turning a small wheel. Instead, they push small keys, similar to those on a calculating machine, which send out musical tones to actuate dial-switching mechanisms.

In the special exhibit called "Looking Ahead With the Bell System," there will be a demonstration unit which not only gives a close-up of the new operating method but permits visitors to listen to the musical tones as they go over the line to set up connections. Demonstrators will dial calls directly to called telephones as far away as Sacramento, Calif. The distant telephones can be reached in a matter of seconds.

Urges Support Of Christmas Seal Sale

Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood today issued a proclamation urging all residents of Newton to help stamp out tuberculosis by giving "unqualified support" to the 1949 Christmas seal sale of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association which opens Monday and will continue until Christmas.

In issuing his proclamation, Mayor Lockwood pointed out that the association conducts a program of tuberculosis control, assisting the state and local health departments in finding "unknown" cases of tuberculosis. Many unknown cases, he explained, are still in the early stage when the disease is easiest to cure. Mayor Lockwood said that the association does intensive work in rehabilitating tuberculous patients, helping them to become self-supporting in jobs that will not endanger their health.

Members Flock to Church On Loyalty Day Despite Weather

In spite of threatening skies thousands of Protestant churchmembers flocked into Newton churches Sunday morning in response to the ringing of the bells which alerted them of the advent of National Church Loyalty Day. Church bells throughout the Newtons were generally rung at 7:30 Saturday evening to remind people to prepare to attend the church of their choice on the following day. The response was very heartening and pronounced successful by the United Church Canvass Committee of the Newton Council of Churches.

The celebration of Loyalty Day took varied forms in the several churches. Myrtle Baptist Church, West Newton, combined the observance with a fiftieth anniversary celebration of its founding and held a special community service at 3 p.m. Sunday which was largely attended by friends in the community as well as by members. At First Baptist, Newton Centre, a special communion service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Russell H. Bishop, who took for the theme of his meditation, "If you can keep your head."

"Loyalty" was the subject chosen by Dr. Francis Taylor at Newton Methodist, Upper Falls. Eliot Church, Newton, and St. Mary's Church, Lower Falls, both had lay speakers in the pulpit. Ray E. Johns, member of Eliot Church and General Secretary of the Boston Y.M.C.A., spoke to his fellow members at the 10:45 a.m. service. Packard Okie, recently returned from Liberia, spoke to the Falls congregation and gave first hand information from the Mission Field.

At Newton Highlands Congregational Church, the Rev. Fredrick Groetsma spoke to a crowded congregation on "The Test of Real Religion." He said in part, "You couldn't possibly support a church alone; you can't teach all the children in our parish or give them all the religious instruction that they need—there are around four hundred children and young people who come to take part in our program of religious education; you can't open your home as a community center to the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Girl Scout Training Center, the Men's Club, the Woman's Club, and any other worthwhile civic enterprise in our community; you can't keep this church in repair alone, nor can you help the struggling churches hereabouts—those down in Boston, the Chinese Mission for example, or those struggling country churches out on the cross roads."

Taxpayers' Secretary Stresses Its Value

Lorenz F. Muther, Jr., Executive Secretary of the Newton Taxpayers' Association discussed the nature and values of taxpayers' associations on the recent Sunday Forum program. Mr. Muther attributed the success of taxpayers' associations in 200 of 351 Massachusetts cities and towns to three reasons: first, the type of people themselves who become interested in the movement, second, the proven methods of successful taxpayers' associations, and third, the results obtained by the members working with the proven methods.

Mr. Muther concluded his talk by citing examples of results obtained in various cities and towns, mentioning the passage by the legislature of the parking meter revenue bill sponsored by the Newton Association.

Low Value of Waste Paper Given As Cause

Friends of Cubs and Scouts of Waban, Newton Highlands, and Newton Upper Falls who have been participating in waste paper collections during the last two years may be wondering why the Scouts have not been around this fall.

Because of the low value of waste paper at this time, it has been decided not to continue the collection. Residents who have saved the paper for the boys are asked to dispose of it in some other way. The Scouts are deeply appreciative of the splendid help given them when waste materials were of greater value. They are ready to help householders remove the paper from their basements on waste collection days. Just call a Scout or Cub in your neighborhood if you need help.

Bellinger, Dr. John A. Conroy, Chief of Police Philip Purcell, William J. Duffy and C. Evan Johnson.

Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood in endorsing the observance of National Kids' Day declared that the setting aside of a day especially for youth is both praiseworthy and in the best interests of both the Community and the Nation.

"Kiwanis International and the National Kids' Day Foundation are to be congratulated on making possible the observance of National Kids' Day with such a program as contemplated by reminding the public that the problems of youth—and especially the underprivileged youth—require constant and ever increasing attention," Mayor Lockwood said.

a professional pharmacist but a most useful citizen.

"Not all druggists are heroes, but neither are all doctors, lawyers, or even those in public life. No profession offers a better opportunity for community leadership than Pharmacy.

"Because we, the public, have faith in his ability and integrity as a pharmacist, we take our prescriptions to him with complete confidence. Maybe that is why many of us tell this friend about our problems and seek his advice in many ways.

"This citation for community service of the American Druggist puts the spotlight on Wilfred Chagnon, who has earned the title of useful citizen. I commend the editor for the happy idea which makes the public aware of the importance of such citizens.

"This prominent citizen has constantly kept abreast of his profession, maintained association with the College of Pharmacy, and served his State as Commissioner of Pharmacy with outstanding credit.

"The medical profession has evidenced full appreciation of his high ethical standards, associations and reliability. As one rendering service above self, he has been known by me to make a distant all night drive to deliver a rare medicine to save a life.

"His civic service has been widespread, including Community Chest, Red Cross, Hospital Drive, Salvation Army, Children's Medical Center, Newton Heart Campaign, Chamber of Commerce and Bank Directorates, Newton Business Men's Association, Kiwanis Club, Peabody Hospital for Crippled Children, the Board of Aldermen, and numerous other associations.

"He served actively in professional aid during World War II. He is a well-known figure in leading sports circles and in fraternal life.

"This National Citation states: 'His fellow citizens having testified to his unusual and unselfish activities in behalf of his community, this national citation is awarded by American Druggist for this public service as a civic leader and pharmacist.'

"Wilfred Chagnon: Allow me to present you with this citation offered by the American Druggist on behalf of your fellow citizens."

Seated at the head table were the guest of honor, Mr. Chagnon, John S. Whittemore, chairman of the committee; Fred C. Haller, William S. Brury, Dean Howard C. Newton, Mayor Lockwood, Toastmaster James P. Gallagher, ex-Mayor Edwin O. Childs, Harold T. Pillsbury, James P. Riggs, Col. Edward J. Kane and Martin Adamo.

Created several years ago by the oldest and largest national magazine of the drug industry in recognition of the "unselfish civil activities performed by many druggists," the citation is made only at the request of a community. Mr. Chagnon was nominated by the following citizens of Newton: John S. Whittemore, representative; Roy S. Edwards, president of Roy S. Edwards, Inc., and Frank A. East, pharmacist.

According to John W. McPherson, editor of American Druggist, these awards, of which 80 have been made so far in the United States, are made to promote more activity in community affairs by business and professional people.

Factors influencing the selection of Mr. Chagnon for this recognition are evidenced in his community activities which include the following: Chairman of Newton's Community Chest and the American Heart Association's Campaign; director of Newton Chamber of Commerce and past president, Newton Business Men's Association; charter member, Kiwanis Club; active in youth work; member, Board of Aldermen; active in Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Newton.

The committee in charge of the dinner consisted of John S. Whittemore, General Chairman, assisted by James B. Riggs, Louis C. Adams, and Frank A. East as Co-Chairmen; George E. Delancy, Carl H. Alvord, Dr. Frederic H. Paul, Jr., James P. Gallagher, and Thomas J. Lyons, of the Kiwanis Club; Alfred P. Hartshorn and Dwight Colburn, of the Rotary Club; Henry T. Fusi, Frank T. Copp and Charles O. Monahan, of the Lions Club; Thomas L. McEnaney, John S. Keefe and James G. Chandler of Newton Lodge of Elks; Col. Charles W. Mitchell and Sgt. Fred W. Fogg of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co., of Massachusetts; Roy S. Edwards and Rupert C. Thompson of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, and Winfield C. Anderson, publicity chairman.

The program was as follows: "Star Spangled Banner" Invocation. Rev. Ray A. Eusden; John S. Whittemore, General Chairman; James P. Gallagher, Toastmaster.

The speakers were: Hon. Theodore R. Lockwood, Mayor of Newton; Hon. Edwin O. Childs, Former Mayor of Newton; Howard C. Newton, Dean, Massachusetts College of Pharmacy; William S. Brury, President, Massachusetts College of Pharmacy; Fred C. Haller, Secretary, Massachusetts Board of Pharmacy; Martin Adamo, Director, American Pharmaceutical Association; Harold T. Pillsbury, President, Newton Kiwanis Club; James B. Riggs, Director, Newton Chamber of Commerce; Col. Edward J. Kane, Commander, Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts; Alfred P. Hartshorn, President, Rotary Club of Newton; Henry T. Fusi, President, Newton Lions Club; Thomas J. McEnaney, Exalted Ruler, Newton Lodge of Elks; Donald L. Gibbs, Newton Board of Aldermen.

The exhibit also includes a working model of the Bell System's radio relay transmission facilities between Boston and New York which bring network television programs to Boston on a narrow microwave beam. Visitors to the exhibit may listen to music carried on a demonstration beam and see how it is relayed by seven radio stations on seven hilltops.

Another working display will present the Transistor, an amazingly simple little device capable of performing efficiently nearly all the functions of an ordinary vacuum tube. Recently developed by the Bell Telephone Laboratories, the Transistor is destined to replace tubes for amplifying voice currents in the telephone system.

In the telephone business, another coming innovation is automatic message accounting. The equipment which will make this possible is contained in a separate display, set up to show how all the details of intercity telephone calls (date, hour and minute, elapsed time, and called telephone number) are recorded by perforations on a paper tape, seemingly in a jumble, and then later turned into individually printed tickets for accounting purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. James Crawford (R. Patricia Mortimore) of Manchester are parents of a second son, Richard Broome Crawford, born Nov. 5, at Beverly Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Mortimore of Newtonville and Mr. and Mrs. T. James Crawford of Birkdale, England.

more than others?" He said in part, "Christianity is a faith that gives and serves and shares. When people cease to care and cease to give and to serve and to share then their religion is mere sham and hypocrisy."

The widow who stepped up to the treasury and put in all that she had did not say, "I don't believe in Missions." We help ourselves, let them help themselves. Charity begins at home." Nor did she ask, "I wonder what Mrs. Jones is going to give?" Nor did she leave it up to George to do it. She had faith, she had gratitude. She shared and gave all that she had. Our giving is so different and much like the little girl who had her hand caught in an expensive vase. Her father and mother got into quite a stew trying to withdraw that hand without breaking the vase. They used soap and then vaseline, all to no avail. Finally the father said, "Open your hand and it will draw out without any trouble." The little girl began to cry, "If I open my hand I will lose my penny." People here seem to be afraid to open up lest they lose what little they have.

"We are generally so indifferent to the appeal of the Church. I realize that we all have calls upon our means which exceed our ability to give and respond the way we would like to do. But we are members of Christ's church and being members I presume that we accept the Christian philosophy that religion is the stuff that binds all life together. It is not one little compartment of life, it is life itself. If this be so then our church should be a beacon light in our life and should be placed first and foremost among the institutions and agencies with which we deal.

"This is your church. Your church is what you make it. Attend. Serve. Give and let your slide rule be, 'What do ye more than others?'"

Brush, Air Clothes to Beat Tiny Pests With Big Appetites

Brighten That Corner

Our carpeting in living and dining room is a light background with rose, brown and gray floral design. I need new slipcovers and would prefer a dark background. Furniture is mahogany, woodwork ivory. What colors should I use for occasional and desk chairs? Would like or plain curtains be best? The rooms are joined by an arch; walls are light green. Would you change it? What color leatherette for dinette chairs?

Each year this pest, seeming like a citizen of the world, destroys articles of clothing worth countless thousands of dollars.

He can be controlled, however, if the modern homemaker takes necessary precautions each time she stores her clothes away for a season. One of the safest ways is to store clothes in a cedar chest, but even then prescribed rules should be followed.

Here they are:

Brush all clothing and woollens to be stored, especially lining and folds. Dry cleaning before putting away is also recommended.

All articles to be stored should be aired and sunned at least one day, if possible.

Make sure all items to be stored are dry before placing in cedar chest. Place them neatly in cedar chest to allow additional storage space and free passage of the important cedar fumes.

Keep the cedar chest closed as much as possible to keep the moth killing fumes within it.

Don't wrap items to be stored, especially blankets which need the moth killing fumes. If dainty things to be stored require covering, do so with light, loose paper. Never wrap anything in newspaper or other printed material.

Don't store items other than clothing and cloths in a cedar chest. Gold and silver thus stored will tarnish. Rubber articles, such as hot water bottles, should never be stored in your cedar chest.

Don't place your cedar chest near dampness. Keep it in a dry place at all times.

Don't expect a cedar chest to be effective indefinitely. When the aroma fades, in a few years time, it can be restored with aromatic cedar oil, available at lumber dealers.

Mrs. J. T.

Assuming that you wish to cover all your furniture, we suggest brown for the davenport, a brown and green stripe for one chair, plain green with matching fringe for the other. The occasional chair could be a print of gray and rose; the desk chair rose leatherette. If you wish to change the walls to rose, reverse the rose and green in our color scheme.

The style of your curtains depends on your furnishings. Lace curtains would go with a traditional scheme but plain curtains or draperies would be better with modern rooms. Do the dinette chairs the same as the desk chair.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Public Relations Office Opened Here

Harry A. Belyea, former publisher and Maine Advertising agency owner has sold the Beacon Publishing Company at Maynard, Mass., and has opened a public relations counselor service office in the Masonic building on Walnut street, Newtonville.

This is the first time that Newton has had such a service. In the past, businessmen and industrialists have had to depend on Boston or New York firms for public relations.

"Although public relations is a comparatively new profession, it plays a most important part in the life of any successful business," says Belyea. "It ranges from a simple publicity story or advertisement to a complete survey and analysis along with recommendations for the betterment of the business. It may be described simply as the science or art of making people want to do business with you. But in actual practice it is rather complicated and by no means an exact science. Every situation calls for its own particular treatment." Belyea lives in Newtonville and for the past 25 years has been active in the public relations field in New England.

Hold Family Sunday, Thanksgiving Jointly

The First Unitarian Society in Newton, West Newton, will observe Thanksgiving Sunday in connection with Family Sunday Nov. 20.

Rev. Herbert Hitchen, D.D., will preach on "Tell It Over." Both the Upper School and Lower School will take part in the first part of the service. The Upper School will remain for the entire service while the Lower School returns to its classes in the parish house before the sermon.

Raytheon Feather Drive Is Praised

Praise for the successful efforts of the workers and contributors to the Raytheon Red Feather drive has been expressed by Riley Hampton, Chairman of the Raytheon Committee.

According to Mr. Hampton, the campaign was a real success with a total of $14,256 in cash and pledges received to date. This is an increase of $3107 over last year. Combined with the company gift of $8,000, it makes a grand total of $22,256.

Newton Centre

Constance Ford, sophomore at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, was chairman of street decorations for the university's She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Montague P. Ford, 112 Institution avenue, Newton Centre.

Newton Fireman Gets Praise For Action

The rescue of two men from a blazing automobile, on Nanantum road last Thursday, the summoning of police, two ambulances and the Fire Department to the scene by Arthur Pierce, a Newton fireman was, in the opinion of many Newton residents and business men, worthy of public commendation and a few days off for his capable, intelligent and effective action.

Men such as Pierce are a credit to the Newton Fire Department and to the City of Newton.

Official Route Map Now Available

The new "Massachusetts Official Route Map for 1949-1950," just issued by the Department of Public Works of the Commonwealth shows the proposed new route of Highway 128 in red dotted lines which by pass the city of Newton. The route will be built as soon as the engineering can be done and the contracts let. This is the culmination of the long fight made by Representative George E. Rawson to get Route 128 out of Newton, where it has been for many years a nuisance, a heavy maintenance expense to the city and a serious traffic hazard.

Kids' Day—

in endorsing the movement.

President Pillsbury stated that Newton will be one of more than 3,000 cities in the United States and Canada participating in the observance of National Kids' Day, the purpose of which is to provide wherever possible assistance in helping underprivileged children to enjoy some of the benefits normally accruing to boys and girls in more fortunate circumstances.

The Kiwanis Club of Newton proudly subscribes to National Kids' Day as a day set aside to focus attention upon the problems and the accomplishments of youth throughout the forty-eight states at both the National and Community level.

A nation-wide broadcast, "Kids' Day Salute," on Thursday, November 17th, 10:00-10:30 P.M., will be carried by the affiliated stations of The American Broadcasting Company. In the Boston area WCOF will present radio and screen personalities such as Bing Crosby, Jimmy Fidler, Arthur Godfrey, Bob Hope, Dinah Shore, Gabriel Heatter, Red Skelton and Walter Winchell.

Beginning Sunday, November 20, and continuing through Christmas Day, the morning worship services of The Eliot Church of Newton will be broadcast over Station WCRB, 1330 on the radio dial, beginning at eleven o'clock.

UNITED CHURCH CANVASS PERSONALITIES

William V. M. Fawcett Co-Chairman

In selecting William V. M. Fawcett as Co-chairman of the United Church Canvass, the officials of the Newton Council of Churches have chosen one of Newton's best known citizens, held in esteem for both his war work with the A.R.P. and his Community Chest record. Mr. Fawcett who is dividing the honors with Lucius E. Thayer, is a native of Newton and a product of its schools, being a graduate of Newton High School in 1917.

Canvass officials paid the following tribute to Mr. Fawcett today: "William Vaughn Moody Fawcett was born in Newton at the beginning of the new century and was educated in Newton Public Schools. He received his A.B. at Harvard in 1921 and entered the Importing and Mill Agent firm of Frederick J. Fawcett, Inc., in which he now holds the post of President and Treasurer, a position which involves frequent trips to England. He is married to the former Barbara Conger and she with their three sons occupy the family home at 34 Hyde avenue, Newton.

"During the war years 'Bill' Fawcett was Chief Warden and Director of Protection of the Newton A.R.P., an effort in which 7,000 Newton citizens were trained as Wardens and Fire Watchers. Under his leadership and at the request of General Daniel Needham, Newton A.R.P. in America which served as a model for this 'heart' of A.R.P. operations on both Atlantic and Pacific coasts and in the big cities throughout the country. Residents from every section of the city and all city departments worked together to protect this city in the case of an emergency. A by-product of this tremendous effort was a better knowledge of the city government and a closer relationship between neighbors than had ever been accomplished by such city-wide efforts such as the Community Fund Drive.

"Recently, when asked about this war-time effort, Mr. Fawcett modestly reported, 'Although I had a hand in all these things you mention, the credit does not belong to me but rather to the Chairman, John Bierer and a unified effective committee.'

"Mr. Fawcett is former Campaign Director and President of the Newton Community Chest as well as Commissioner, Director and President of the Norumbega Council Boy Scouts. He has not let past efforts and successes encourage him to retire from community interests and activities. He is currently a Director of the Newton Community Chest, the Newton Council of Churches and a Trustee of the West Newton Savings Bank.

"He has been for many years Junior Warden of Grace Episcopal Church and active in its prudential affairs. He is National Chairman of Senior 'Scouting', B.S.A., and a member of the National Executive Board of that organization. His clubs include the Down Town Club of Boston, Harvard Club of Boston, New York and Braeburn Country Club, West Newton.

"In his spare time, if such an active community man has any, William Fawcett likes to sail, cruising along the coast from Maine to Nantucket. He also enjoys using his hands in carpentry and is known as an amateur photographer. The Council is indeed fortunate in calling to its aid a man so well versed in community leadership and sound judgment.

When asked to make a statement in preparation for the United Canvass, Fawcett said:

"Although a large and far-flung suburban city, Newton has proven many times that for things worthwhile its citizens can unite into a solid effective team. What has been true of city wide affairs, is true to a lesser degree in the United Canvass of the Protestant churches of this city. When the loyal people of these churches unite in a common effort it assumes an importance far greater than the raising of the individual church budget. Even those who take their church responsibilities lightly and the few who are the strangers to their church, accept when they seek protection at birth, marriage and death, have cause to stop and think when the raising of money for the kingdom of God becomes a city-wide affair. Again the indirect result is probably almost as important as the main reason for this united effort. Not only in the individual church budget more adequately met but through this Canvass comes a better understanding between the denominations and perhaps a closer approach to church unity. I am sure when the church people of Newton understand the issues at stake and the church is ring, they will say 'YES' to their faith on Sunday, November 27th."

RED FEATHER FUND REACHES $255,000

At the final Report Luncheon of the Red Feather Campaign at the Boston City Club Tuesday of this week, Newton reported total subscriptions of $255,000, or 85 per cent of its goal.

"While the Campaign closes officially this evening," stated Harold T. Pillsbury, Newton Campaign Chairman, "the effort in the interest of the agencies of the Newton Community Chest and the Red Feather Services in Greater Boston will not cease until every possible dollar has been raised."

"We are a long way from Newton's goal of $296,825," Mr. Pillsbury further stated, "and as eighty cents of every dollar raised this year is to be used in Newton, I urge every person in Newton who has not already made a subscription or is able to add to his previous gift to send his donation to the Chest Office at 93 Union Street, Newton Centre, or telephone LA 55120."

"Indications at this time are that we are not going to raise the minimum amounts needed. Every additional subscription from this point on will be most heartily appreciated."

The Newton Community Club is still keeping up its high standard of programs. Thursday, November 10, at the Underwood School Mrs. Gwendolyn Currier Flather, who is well known in Newton, having been a resident for many years, also a former club member, gave her interesting and entertaining lecture on "Dolls Educators or Toys."

Mrs. Flather told how dolls were first introduced and gradually became what they are today, a very important factor in the life of a little girl, as well as grown-ups. Some of the dolls she had with her were Abraham Lincoln, Huckleberry Finn, with every detail, even a tiny tin can with Tomato printed on it, for worms. Scarlet O'Hara from "Gone With the Wind," Babouska who was associated with Xmas in Russia, Bob Cratchet and Tiny Tim with his little crutch, and many others.

Auburndale Church Is Represented

At The General Convention of the Episcopal Churches, held in San Francisco in September, The Church of The Messiah of Auburndale, was represented for the first time by a delegate, Mrs. Earl D. Wood of 20 Duffield road, one of four delegates from Massachusetts. Enroute to California, Mrs. Wood, who is chairman of Home Missions in the Diocese of Massachusetts, spent ten days in Eastern Oregon, visiting the different missions.

During her stay the ladies of the various communities gathered at Hermiston and gave a Tea for Mrs. Wood who was the guest speaker.

At the close of the Convention, Mrs. Wood spent two weeks with her family in San Gabriel where she again spoke at the meetings.

NEWTON 'ARMY' DRIVE CROSSES QUOTA LINE

Newton has exceeded its $20,000 quota by a slight margin, in the Salvation Army's 1949-1950 appeal for funds, it is announced by Dwight Colburn, General Chairman.

"I'm delighted, of course," said Mr. Colburn, "and grateful to all those who contributed and to the many volunteers who have worked so conscientiously these past weeks. But I'm a little disappointed, too. I had hoped we would equal last year's fine record. I still think we can get nearer to it, even at this late date. Because I feel sure there are Newton people who fully intended to help the Salvation Army, but were either not visited by workers, or who simply put it off, planning to make their contributions before the campaign was over."

"So I'm making a special and urgent appeal to all who would still like to have a share in the humanitarian work being done by the 'Army' and by that earnest and efficient local committee which allots the Newton fund for our unfortunate neighbors. It is this: please, today, send whatever you can afford, no matter how little, direct to William M. Cahill, c/o the Newton-Waltham Bank & Trust Co., Newtonville. You may be sure your contributions will be most gratefully received."

Even though the organized drive ends this week, Mr. Colburn emphasized there is still time to contribute. "Every dollar from those who have not yet contributed, and from previous contributors who may be willing to increase the amounts they have already given," said Mr. Colburn, "will help our local service fund committee make the coming winter that much more bearable for Newton families in desperate need."

Arthur R. Pierce Is Cited for Rescue Work

The action taken by Fire Alarm Operator Arthur R. Pierce of 43 Rustic street, Newton in effecting the rescue of members involved in a recent automobile accident on Nonantum road and Maple street, near the Water-town-Newton line, has been recognized by citizens of Newton as most praiseworthy.

Attracted to the scene of the accident at 1:40 a.m. on November 10, Pierce pulled one man from an automobile when a collision occurred involving cars owned and operated by Paul L. Keating of 79 Columbus av., Waltham, and Frederick Wilson of 147 Edinboro street, Newtonville. Occupants of the Wilson car were William McMahon of 175 Walnut street, Newtonville and Michael Chartier of 94 Oakland road, Waltham. All were seriously injured.

Pierce immediately notified the Metropolitan Police Department of the accident and requested that an ambulance and a piece of fire apparatus be sent to the scene as a fire had broken out in one car. He removed the injured members from the roadway and assisted the Metropolitan officers in placing the victims on stretchers preparatory to removal to the hospital.

In recognition of the valuable assistance rendered by Fire Alarm Operator Arthur R. Pierce in assisting the persons involved in this serious accident Chief John E. Corcoran has cited him in a department general order and granted him two days' extra leave from the department.

Local Musician to Play With Civic Symphony Orchestra

Fifty years ago Jan Sibelius composed his famous Symphony No. 1 in E minor, and Thursday evening, December 1, when the Civic Symphony Orchestra of Boston picks up the first strains of his famous Symphony, Newton will be well represented. John Clarke, capable bass player who lives at 82 Carl street, will be playing as a member of the renowned Civic Symphony Orchestra of Boston, Inc.

Mr. John Clarke has a very interesting musical background and will be performing that evening in the New John Hancock Auditorium in Boston under the direction of Mr. Paul Cherkassky. The concert that evening will consist of Symphony No. 1 in E minor by Sibelius and the Concerto No. 2 in C Minor by Rachmaninoff with Kalman Novak as soloist. There will also be a special performance by the John Hancock chorus.

Like John Clarke, the Civic Symphony Orchestra of Boston, Inc. has an interesting background. Born 23 years ago, the Orchestra is dedicated to giving serious young musicians the benefits of playing in an ensemble under expert leadership. It has placed some 30 young people with many symphony orchestras, including seven with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Scholarships, created from the concert receipts, are given to the most enterprising members each season.

Tickets for the December 1st concert in which Mr. Clarke will perform are available at the John Hancock box office.

Benjamin F. Louis of 72 St. Mary's street, Newton Lower Falls, was elected to fill the unexpired term of Benjamin T. Fawcett which runs until May, 1951. Mr. Louis is a well known Newton businessman in his capacity as treasurer of the Newton Savings Bank.

Rev. Hamilton M. Gifford of 56 Somerset road, West Newton, was elected to fill the unexpired term of Arnold C. Barker which runs until May, 1950. Rev. Gifford is likewise known throughout the community in his work as Pastor of the Newtonville Methodist Church.

Girl Scout Council Members at Meeting

Three Newton Council members were among the more than 8000 Girl Scout leaders, council members and other volunteers who attended the largest convention in the history of Girl Scouting in Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15-18. Delegates from Newton were Mrs. Kenneth P. Crafts from the Council, and Miss Mildred Kuntz and Miss Josephine McDonough, field directors.

Featured at the convention was the announcement of the 1951 international service project to send school supplies to children in 28 countries where there is a shortage of the tools of learning. Called "School-mates Overseas" the project sets up a plan through which troop members can make schoolbags, all items with pencils, notebook, erasers, crayons and similar small objects plus "surprises" in the form of hair ribbons, mittens, scarfs or trinkets and have them shipped abroad by seven agencies. It was estimated that if each troop sent only one schoolbag, more than 65,000 would be collected. Dele-

Rev. Henry S. Leiper To Be Guest Speaker

The Rev. Henry Smith Leiper, D.D., will be the guest speaker Sunday in the morning service at Central Congregational Church, Newtonville. Dr. Leiper is Associate General Secretary of the World Council of Churches and General Secretary of the Council's Conference of U. S. A. Member Churches.

Beginning in 1930, Dr. Leiper has spent each summer in Europe keeping alive contacts with church leaders, preaching, lecturing and laying plans for the World Council of Churches. He was one of the most effective workers in carrying through the great meeting in Amsterdam at which the World Council was organized. After graduating from Amherst College, Union Theological Seminary, and Columbia University, he served as a minister, a traveling secretary of the Y.M.C.A., a war relief worker in Siberia during World War I, as an educator and relief worker in China, and as an editorial secretary for the Congregational Christian General Council.

The service will be conducted by the Minister, Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, who was a classmate of Dr. Leiper's at Amherst College.

Interest Increases In Children's Books

During the first 10 months of the current year the Newton Free Library and its branches made an earnest attempt to interest children in the long and carefully selected list of books that it offers available for them. The list covers a wide range—from the classics down to the latest works of science. During the 10-month period circulation of children's books went over the 200,000 mark and it is still increasing.

The public library in New England cities and towns has a long and effective history of service. That it has not yet exhausted its possibilities of service is apparent in a city like Newton which has had a circulation at the rate of three-quarters of a million books between January 1 and November 1, this year, in a population of about 70,000 people. Such a record, indeed, is really worthwhile.

Robert McLaughlin Is Highly Praised

The Emerson Parent-Teachers Association in an open letter last week gave high praise to Robert McLaughlin for his years of effort in behalf of the youngsters of Newton Upper Falls. The letter to Mr. McLaughlin is as follows:

"We, the Emerson Parent-Teachers Association, have tonight extended to you a rising vote of thanks for your work in connection with the Newton Upper Falls Halloween parties. It is the feeling of all of us that this tenth anniversary program topped them all.

"In a period of ten years many things change, even communities. Here in Newton Upper Falls there are many new faces. Among these new people there are those who are not familiar with the origin of these city-wide parties and we would like to just reminisce in this open letter.

"Bob, as you are known to so many of us here in Newton Upper Falls, you well remember that ten years ago you and Officer Leo Davis, who has since passed to his eternal reward, concentrated your energies on a method of giving the children of Newton Upper Falls a grand and glorious hallowe'en, and giving them an opportunity to vent their prank desires without destruction to public and personal property. Officer Davis solicited the merchants and you organized a grand committee of parents.

"This idea had never been tried before. With assistance from the Recreation, Police and

Newton Corner Discussion Group to Meet Wednesday

A committee consisting of Frank Vanderhoof, Nelson R. Scott, William Powers, Lotti Gayzagian, Walter J. Forbes, Erik Wahlman, Raymond Richard, Edward J. Pease and Guy S. Baker announces that there will be a meeting of the Newton Corner Discussion Group at the Underwood School, Wednesday evening, November 30. This meeting is being called in accordance with a suggestion made during the election campaign by Alderman-elect Paul S. Rich. Mr. Rich said that he felt there were many problems of interest in Newton Corner which people would like to discuss. He suggested the formation of a discussion group to which everyone interested would be welcome and which would hold three or four meetings each winter. Subjects to be discussed could be those affecting our city government and particularly the Newton Corner section of the city.

If the idea is approved at the meeting on November 30, some permanent organization will probably be set up. Everyone is welcome to attend this meeting and bring their friends and to discuss things of interest to them. The general topic, "How Can Newton Corner Be Improved?" has so far been suggested for discussion. Others will probably be made at this meeting for later sessions.

It is hoped that everyone will attend and bring their neighbors and enter into the discussion, giving their suggestions and ideas on how to build a better Newton Corner.

Mail Early in Order To Assure Delivery

The early shopping for Christmas movement has really taken hold as evidenced by reports from store executives and by present mail volumes, according to Postmaster Francis A. Crowley. "It is clearly evident," he said, "that the public are buying their Christmas gifts far earlier than ever before for the reason that it offers them a greater length of time to shop in leisure and there is a wider selection of merchandise from which to choose their gifts. Most important it permits the last few weeks before Christmas for the little things which make Christmas in the home, decorations, planning for guests, wrapping gifts, and shopping for the Christmas dinner, without the tiring effort of former years," continued the postmaster.

It is being reflected in the post-office and we hope that the public will follow the official closing dates which have been established to assure the delivery of all gifts and greeting cards in time for Christmas. If parcels are to be mailed they must be deposited earlier because of the already enormous volume of parcel post which is being received. As a matter of fact, postal officials report that the huge South Postal Annex has been taxed to the utmost and it has already become necessary to take over huge areas in the Boston Army Base to distribute parcel post and additional space is being acquired at the Watertown Arsenal.

Packages must be wrapped more securely and a duplicate address should be contained in each package for double protection. (Continued on Page 2)

Young Adult Council Meets at Newton Y

Fifty-five members of the Massachusetts and Rhode Island Y.M.C.A. Young Adult Council met at the Newton Y.M.C.A., 276 Church street, Newton last Sunday afternoon. Orville H. Emmons, Associate State Secretary of 66 Walker street, Newtonville, led the assembly.

The meeting had a four-fold purpose: The election of Council officers for the coming year; determining the theme and planning the program for the 1950 Two-State Young Adult Conference; consideration of a chartering plan and other matters having to do with effective functioning on the Council.

Allen S. Ellsworth gave a brief opening talk on the topic "Guidelines for Young Adult Programing."

Representatives from the Newton Y.M.C.A. included Harold E. Fuller, Jr., William F. Cousins, and Oliver Smith. A delicious dinner was served to the delegates by Mrs. Frank Perry and Mrs. Joseph Hapenny.

Camp Day Father's Club to Meet Dec. 6

Members of the Camp Frank A. Day Father's Club will hold their annual dinner meeting at the Newton Young Men's Christian Association, 276 Church street, Newton, Tuesday evening, December 6, at 6:30 p.m.

President Fred J. Cartier announces a fine program which includes the showing of the father's week-end pictures taken last summer. There will also be an election of officers for 1950. Reservations for the dinner close on Friday, November 25.

First of Sunday Teas And Concerts Given

At the first of a series of Sunday afternoon entertainments, last Sunday at four o'clock, Miss Nancy Goff played piano compositions by Cyril Scott and by Chopin, and Mr. Alexander Wallace, tenor, sang two groups of songs, by several composers at the Hunnewell Club. Mrs. Wallace played piano accompaniment for her husband. Tea following the concert was under the supervision of Mrs. Roger C. Allen, with Mrs. Philip S. Jamieson and Mrs. Alban F. Rosene acting as hostesses.

In her playing Miss Goff gives evidence of a keen musical appreciation. Her program was admirably suited to the occasion and her performance of it was in excellent taste. While disclosing some of the traits of immaturity, she also exhibits a pleasing technique and has a strong sense of tonal and rhythmic values. She is fortunate in having one of the best teachers in Boston, and should look forward to a most successful career in music.

Mr. Wallace is known to many in Newton, as he is tenor soloist at the Newton Centre Baptist Church. His voice is agreeable rather than powerful, though if necessary he can produce a good volume of sound. His voice is under good control, his articulation is very clear, and most important, he sings intelligently and with feeling. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wallace, who deserves high praise.

A large audience was evidently well pleased by the entire program.

In the next concert of this series, January 22, the artists will be Miss Virginia Dewey, lyric soprano, and Miss Ethel Dewey, pianist.

Tells About Aid to French Children

Mrs. Priscilla Daudelin, Teacher-Sponsor of Junior Red Cross at Warren Junior High School in West Newton, spoke to the Newton Interscholarship Junior Red Cross Council at the Chapter House Monday afternoon, on her experiences in France last summer with orphaned and displaced children.

Mr. and Mrs. Daudelin took with them a box of athletic equipment bought from funds collected by Warren Junior High School students, supplemented by the Service Fund of the Junior Red Cross. Mr. Pennington, the Athletic Director at Warren Junior High School, bought the balls, bats, catchers and fielders mitts and bats which were included in the gift. Mrs. Frances Harris, the Newton Red Cross Director and Monsieur Chambon, the French Consul here in Boston, arranged that the equipment should be taken in without duty.

The Children of Men Active in the Resistance Movement had been trying to secure sports equipment, so the Daudelins were able to take the gift to these children and present it to them.

Mrs. Daudelin in speaking of Junior Red Cross in France, said that their job is a little different than ours, but fitted to their needs. Their program emphasizes: Learning — including Fire Prevention First Aid and Child Care; Distributing — Packages to old people at Christmas; Giving out food, toys and greetings to children on way to summer camps; Giving lunch to groups of mothers; Messenger service; Organizing — At Fairs Information Booths; Help at mass shelters, at Dressing stations, at Child Care centers.

Mrs. Daudelin said "Rehabilitation of the children is the big job in France, supplying them with their introductory talk. After her introductory talk, Mrs. Daudelin showed slides of her trip through France with explanatory comment, covering Bastille Day Parades, Market Days, French Boy Scouts, the villages, and some of the outstanding architectural spots they visited."

Senior Class Play to Be Held Dec. 2-3

The senior class of Newton High School presents "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" in the high school auditorium December 2 and 3. The play is a comedy in three acts based on the book by Cornelius Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough.

The comedy concerns two young midwestern girls who, in 1923, go abroad for the first time. The adventures of Cornelia and Emily bring them in contact with a variety of things — icebergs, stowaways, measles, bedbugs, and two young Harvard medical students.

In the leading parts are Virginia Rost, Virginia Stuart, David Ferguson, and Robert Gifford, all of whom have had some stage experience. Miss Helen Sweeney, veteran-director of other Newton High School senior plays, is the coach.

The play is to have two evening performances, at 8:15 p.m. in the Newton High School auditorium on December 2 and 3. Tickets will be on sale at the ticket office or may be obtained from Mr. Donald Mitchell at the high school.

Faculty Bazaar to Be Held Tuesday

The third annual Faculty Bazaar to raise money for the Building Fund of Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, will be held on the college campus in Winslow Hall next Tuesday.

Christmas gifts will be on sale, and the decorations will be in keeping with the holiday season. There will be attractive tables with hand-knit garments, hand-sewn gifts, arts and crafts, gay Christmas wrappings, white elephant articles, grab-bags, and foods.

Coffee and brownies, at the snack bar, will be served during the afternoon and evening to add to the festivity of the Bazaar. The active committee includes Miss Evelyn Olsen as chairman; Miss Sophia Josephs and Miss Carolyn Chapman as co-treasurers; and Miss Lillian MacArthur, Miss June Babcock, Mrs. Maida Hicks, Miss Ebbie Hallberg, Mrs. Mary Briggs, and Mrs. Laura Vasey as representatives of the faculty, administration, and resident heads.

Music School Plans To Hold Bazaar

The Mothers' Auxiliary of the All Newton Music School held its November meeting last Friday afternoon. Dessert and coffee were served at one-thirty followed by a business meeting with Mrs. R. Casper Swaney, chairman of the Auxiliary, presiding.

Interesting reports were read by the secretary, Mrs. Marcel Chartrand, and by the treasurer, Mrs. John Scabia. Mrs. Swaney reported on the success of the Annual Open House held Sunday afternoon, October 23, and read a letter from Mrs. B. Alden Thresher, president of the Music School, in which she expressed appreciation for the cooperation of the Mothers' Auxiliary in helping to make the occasion an outstanding social event.

Plans for a Rummage Sale were discussed and it was voted to conduct such a project late in January, the exact date and place to be announced in the near future. Members were urged to gather together saleable articles and send them in from now on until the sale and to ask their friends and neighbors to do the same. The Rummage Sale is to be the one special money raising event of the year for the purpose of raising funds for scholarships at the Music School. Two promising students were awarded Mothers' Auxiliary Scholarships for this season, 1949-1950 and it is planned to award two again for 1950-1951.

Mrs. Swaney expressed her pleasure and gratitude at the splendid attendance, and the interest shown, by those present. She explained that mothers of all Music School students are automatically members of the Auxiliary — even though they may not be able to attend many meetings. Today it is universally accepted by all enlightened parents that music is part of every child's general education.

The Mothers' Auxiliary was formed in 1945 to promote understanding and friendly cooperation between parents and the staff in order to help further the work of the school and the music education of their children.

The next meeting of the group will be held on Friday afternoon, January 6. After a brief business meeting a Swap Auction will be held in charge of Mrs. Ernest Kuebler, who conducted one last year to the great pleasure of all present.

NINTH ANNUAL UNITED CHURCH CANVASS TO BE HELD HERE SUNDAY

Improvement Assn. To Meet Dec. 5

The Newton Improvement Association will hold its Fall Open Meeting, December 5, at 8 p.m. in the Underwood School. Mr. William V. M. Fawcett will be the principal speaker. Mayor Theodore R. Lockwood and the ward aldermen will also be present and will speak briefly.

Saint Paul's Church Joins Newton Council

Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, Newton Highlands, has voted to join the Newton Council of Churches it was announced by Executive Secretary Richard P. McClintock at a recent meeting of the Executive Committee. The new member church brings the total of Newton Churches in the Council to 26 which is the largest the organization has ever been. The meeting which took place in Auburndale last week also considered the active work of the Council. Besides the United Church Canvass which is in progress and the Laboratory School for Teacher Training which is now being conducted at First Baptist Church Newton Centre, the Council considered a proposed "Inter-faith" seminar for young people to be held at Rolling Ridge in April. Also plans were advanced for additional Laboratory Schools during the mid-term as well as the announcement that the Woman's Division was assembling a corps of readers and visitors for the elderly people in Newton's Rest Homes and Institutions.

A tentative date has been set for the Mid-winter meeting January 26th, possibly at Central Congregational Church at which time 180 ministers and delegates will discuss Evangelism.

Over 1,000 canvassers from 27 sponsoring churches will visit 15,000 homes of members throughout Newton in the ninth annual United Church canvass Sunday. The goal of the drive is over one half million dollars for local support and benevolence of the participating local churches. Church bells throughout the city will ring at 2 p.m. to signify the opening of the campaign and again at 8 p.m. to symbolize the hoped for victory in raising the highest church budget in the history of the churches concerned. The canvass is under the direction of the Newton Council of Churches of which Jesse D. Traylor, West Newton, is the president and the Rev. Richard P. McClintock of Auburndale is the executive secretary. Lucius E. Thayer, past president of the council, and William V. M. Fawcett, former director of the Community Fund serve as co-chairmen of the committee and are assisted by Edlund S. Whitten of Waban and William A. Jackson of Newtonville as committeemen.

In an address to the canvassers of Centenary Church recently, Co-chairman William Fawcett sounded the keynote of the drive. He said, "The slogan of our current effort is 'When the church bell rings say, "Yes." This means we call upon every member of every church to support it fully by serving in its organizations, by attending its services of worship, and by giving a fair share to its financial support.

"The spirit of the United Canvass is that we undertake to do together those things which we can do better together than we can apart. Our united effort reaches further than any one member or any one church ever realizes. Remember you are but 40 of 1,000 consecrated lay people who are doing this important work next Sunday. Your church is but one of 27; your budget but a few thousand against one half million dollars. Your part may seem small to you but never let it be unimportant."

Newton Art Assn.

In a delightful and informal manner, Miss Priscilla Ordway, well-known painter and teacher of art, gave a travel talk on Mexico and Guatemala illustrated with her watercolors on Thursday evening, Nov. 17, at the Newton Art Association. Miss Ordway traveled with the International School of Art for four weeks in Guatemala and independently for two weeks in Mexico, always with her sketch book now filled with interesting and realistic drawings of those countries. Her watercolors portrayed the life and beauty of the countries in vivid and strong color. In all her contacts with the people and her visits to the schools, was the underlying thought that universal love of art makes more friendly relations between countries and since visiting there, she has sent much art material to be used in the schools. It was a most interesting and instructive program. The next meeting will be held Dec. 1 at the Bonnar Studio.

Newton Junior College

Election of seven representatives to the Student Council and a Sunday afternoon reception for parents have highlighted the past week in Newton Junior College.

Rose-Derry Group to Take Part In Study

Employees of the Rose-Derry Mattress Company will become the second group to participate in a pilot study of screening for heart disease sponsored by the Newton Heart Demonstration Program. Dr. Ernest M. Morris, Newton director of Public Health, has announced. Through Mr. Murray Mersels, general manager, arrangements have been made to examine Rose-Derry's 200 employees on November 28, 29 and 30.

"It is hoped that this study, and the one conducted last summer among city hall employees, will help establish a pattern for a community-wide screening program," Dr. Morris said.

The heart disease screening program was planned by the Cardiac Program Committee of Newton-Wellesley Hospital, medical advisory committee to the health department's Heart Demonstration Program. Open only to apparently well persons, its aim is to find, and refer to their family physician, individuals who are unaware they have heart conditions.

To screen out the suspicious from the non-suspicious cases, three simple procedures are used: The individual answers "yes" or "no" to a few medical questions; a nurse records blood pressure, height and weight; and a physician listens to the heart sounds. Public Health Service physicians and nurses now with the Newton Health Department are in charge of examinations.

Hunnell Club

In the early spring, the Wampatuck Club of Hingham paid a visit to the Hunnell Club and during the evening bowled a match which they won by a good margin.

On Saturday evening, November 19, a group of members of the Hunnell Club returned the compliment and received a hearty and enthusiastic welcome by Mr. David Dunlop, president of Wampatuck and by members of the Club.

Among those in the Hunnell Club party were: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hollingsworth, Miss Harriet Murray and Thomas F. Murray.

During the evening there were contests of contract, bowling and billiards with Messrs. Dr. Ed. Sawyer, Dr. Harold Higgins, Luke Goff, Arthur Byers, Leonard Abbott, Gordon Weintz and Richard Kurrus representing Hunnell at cards. Hunnell players were the winners, with one of Massachusetts master players, Luke Goff and his partner, Dr. Sawyer having high score.

Wampatuck produced their high-average bowlers and won the ten-man match by a score of 2963 against the effort of Hunnell of 2737. The following bowlers represented Hunnell: Messrs. Henry Jones, Leo Davidson, Albert Spittall, John Giltner, John Sutherland, L. B. Hollingsworth, Ashley Burt, Charles Houghton, Harry Lord and Walter Woodward.

Charles Houghton had the high single of 117 and Leo Davidson, the three-string total of 316 for Hunnell, while for the home team, Stanley Cramer bowled a single high string of 127 and Francis Krause 330, three-string total.

At the conclusion of the games program, there followed a social hour and collation, at which the hostess, Mrs. Richard Laurie poured and was assisted by Mrs. David Dunlop, Mrs. G. Earl Loud and Mrs. Wilfred Conary. The party adjourned at a late hour, with promises of further enjoyable gatherings.

gates to the convention contributed school supplies at the end of the sessions so that the hostess council of Milwaukee Girl Scouts might send the first shipment.

According to reports made by the national officers of the Girl Scout organization during the convention sessions, Girl Scouting has more than doubled its membership during the past ten years and now reaches nine out of every hundred girls of Scout age in the country. According to Mrs. C. Vaughan Ferguson, Schenectady, N. Y., who was re-elected to the office of national president at the final session of the convention, there are 331,074 adult volunteers and 1043 professional workers. Both Mrs. Ferguson and speakers from other countries who took part in the sessions stressed the need for more women to volunteer for Girl Scouting as service to youth. According to them the need is world-wide. Extension of Girl Scouting into more rural areas was emphasized and also the further development of Scouting for handicapped girls. More camping for more girls was also cited as one of the major aims of the organization.

Mrs. Margaret Culkin Banning, Duluth, Minn., noted author, the featured speaker at a Community Night session at which Girl Scouts of Milwaukee presented a pageant, said, "I think of the Girl Scouts as an organization which more than any other single one is going to make the women of this country what they should and must be if the country is going to continue to exist as a democracy. . . . Let no one underestimate the value of an organization which has a tremendous basic influence on one-tenth of the girls in this country. It is absolutely immeasurable."

Speaking of the role of voluntary organization in the pattern of American life, Mrs. Banning said, "Free will must be good will. That is what we must show the world and why voluntary organizations are more important than ever today. It is a world in which every free individual who volunteers his time and strength and money for human aid and betterment is setting the example and standard which is needed more than anything else in this historical period."

Several hundred Senior Scouts who attended the convention as special guests presented their own session before the delegates at which they discussed their activities and the values of the Scout program to them as young adults.

At the final session of the four day convention national officers were elected for the next two years and a special citation was presented to Dr. Lillian Gilbreth, Montclair, N. J., internationally famous consulting engineer who has served the movement since early in the 1920's.

The next national convention of the Girl Scouts will be held in 1951 in Boston, Mass., it was announced.

Markets Well Stocked for The Holiday

With turkeys selling in the vicinity of 60 cents a pound, and a plentiful supply of pork, lamb and beef as well as all kinds of fowl carried by local markets, Dedham housewives have had no difficulty in selecting their Thanksgiving menus.

The Dedham schools will close at noon Wednesday, the day before Thanksgiving, and classes will be resumed Monday morning November 28.

It is good news to report that the Thanksgiving dinner this year can feature turkey at a lower cost than a year ago due to a bigger turkey crop. Poultrymen estimate that the turkey crop is about 29 percent above the 1948 production and totals about 41 million birds. Here in New England it is estimated that 813 thousand birds are ready for the market or about 14 percent more than last year.

Nutritionists point out that you get a larger proportion of meat from the larger birds and that a turkey provides considerable food value. They are rich in protein, phosphorus, iron and calcium, as well as vitamins B-1, B-2 and G.

Look for a turkey that has a clean waxy skin with few pin feathers and with no bruises or discolorations and bear in mind that a meaty turkey has a general plump appearance with a broad breast and short body. It means good eating.

Fabrics Wear An Aura Of Elegance

Like a dream sequence in a Hollywood technicolor extravaganza, autumn '49 fabrics are the stuff that glamour is made of! Crisp, whispering taffetas—brocades that glow with an aura of iridescence—jewel-gleaming satins and shimmering velvets all sparkle in fashion's frame. Colors in Nature's own hues, brilliantly shine in a host of luxurious fabrics. Silks are heavy and with a new radiance of their own and in the greatest array of types and weaves seen in many years. Novelty weaves are used artistically to create the most fascinating fabric story since the turn of the century.

Housing Endorsements

Fifty percent of housing and slum clearance proposals submitted to voters in the general elections were approved.

Praised-

Fire Departments a monstrous evening was planned—Ghosts to Goblins. At about 6:30 hundreds of boys, girls, parents, teachers and dogs gathered on the Newton Upper Falls playground to formulate into the first village hallow'en parade ever attempted—Fourth of July or Hallow'en Eve. Red lights, ghosts, tramps, witches, clowns and goblins paraded through the streets. The entire parade, with everybody from everywhere joining in, marched right into the Emerson School basement.

From the basement they had to travel through one of those spooky ghost walks—the wind blowing, witches, skeletons and weird sounds all adding to the "spirit of hallow'en." From here they continued to march right up the stairs to the auditorium where a full program for all age groups had been planned. Following this program the various age groups gathered in the class rooms where parents entertained them in games and for a grand finale, ice cream, cookies, and apples. Every child left, full, tired, and completely satisfied that ghosts and goblins could do other than destructive things.

"From this grand beginning originated the Newton-wide Hallow'en party program, which is proclaimed by all who know, as having saved the merchants thousands of dollars."

"Newton Upper Falls is proud of Robert McLaughlin and what his work has meant not only to Newton Upper Falls but to all of Newton."

"Bob, Newton Upper Falls takes its hat off to you. May you continue in the great work you have done for children for many years to come."

Christmas Rush In Full Swing

The early shopping for Christmas movement has really taken hold as evidenced by reports from store executives and by present mail volumes, according to Postmaster Francis A. Crowley. "It is clearly evident," he said, "that the public are buying their Christmas gifts far earlier than ever before for the reason that it offers them a greater length of time to shop in leisure and there is a wider selection of merchandise from which to choose their gifts. Most important it permits the last few weeks before Christmas for the little things which make Christmas in the home, decorations, planning for guests, wrapping gifts, and shopping for the Christmas dinner, without the tiring effort of former years," continued the postmaster.

It is being reflected in the postoffice and we hope that the public will follow the official closing dates which have been established to assure the delivery of all gifts and greeting cards in time for Christmas. If parcels are to be mailed they must be deposited earlier because of the already enormous volume of parcel post which is being received. As a matter of fact, postal officials report that the huge South Postal Annex has been taxed to the utmost and it has already become necessary to take over huge areas in the Boston Army Base to distribute parcel post and additional space is being acquired at the Watertown Arsenal.

Packages must be wrapped more securely and a duplicate address should be contained in each package for double protection. Special delivery or special handling is recommended, especially during the Christmas season. Commercial shippers would do well to send distant packages by air parcel post.

Parcels for delivery in the States of Arizona, California, Oregon and Washington should be deposited not later than Monday, November 28, for assured Yuletide delivery.

Household Hints

Our stove was chipped in several places when we moved to our new apartment. It isn't noticeable to anyone but I know it's there. Is there anything that would cover this? Mrs. P.

You can touch up the spots with a "rubber enamel" but we would not advise a porcelain paint.

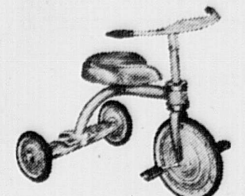

1. I live in an upstairs suite of a two-family, and regardless of the weather, the house is always very warm. Off the living room I have a very large clothes closet. I have just discovered that my brand new woolen blankets have been infested with ticks. These tiny little insects seem to be imbedded in the material. I have tried to get rid of them by washing the blankets, but washing destroys the blankets. What do I do?

2. What is a good way to exterminate wasps that make their nests under the ceiling of the porch?—Mrs. M. F.

1. Ticks are parasites. Therefore since there's no nourishment for them in blankets, they're either very stupid ticks or not ticks at all. We suggest that you send a sample, carefully packaged to the Ohio Experimental Station at Wooster. The entomologist will identify the pest and suggest methods of control. If washing has flattened your new blankets, you may have used too-hot water. Next time you wash them, use very mild, lukewarm suds, work fast and rinse in lukewarm water also. A small quantity of glycerine in the rinse will help keep blankets soft.

2. Get an insecticide with a pyrethrum or rotenone base and spray thoroughly, right up to the nest. This should render the wasps inactive. Break the cone down with a stick and spray heavily inside. Sweep up and burn immediately.

We moved into a rather old house during the winter and were not troubled with spiders. Now that warm weather is here, I see them in the house every day. Can you tell me how to get rid of them and what causes them? Our basement is rather damp.—Mrs. S. B.

The spiders may make you very unhappy but actually they're more beneficial than harmful because they destroy flies and other insect pests. Spiders live in old lumber, wood or trash piles, basements, etc., and enter a house through screens and loose-fitting windows and doors.

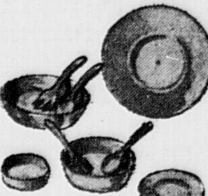

Brush off any webs you see and crush cocoons. These look almost like cherry pits. See that all screens are tight. Use a good insecticide, spraying each room and closing it for a little while. For garages and other outbuildings use cattle spray. Further, we suggest that you install a gadget to dry out your basement. Hardware stores have them.

I would appreciate advice on removing a bad scorch stain from a baby's practically new sweater. It was caused by placing the sweater over the radiator to dry quickly. In case it can't be removed, do you suggest dyeing? It's now a soft yellow.—Mrs. R. C.

by brushing with emery paper. Perhaps the stains are more from rust than from scorch. If so, you can buy a tube of rust remover at most drug stores. This product won't harm colors.

When a garment is badly scorched so that the fibers are burned, reweaving would be the best solution. However, since you have undoubtedly damaged the sweater by putting it on the radiator, it may not now be worth reweaving. Never expose wool to direct heat. By the same token, dyeing would not bring the sweater back to the original condition.

Kabob Ideas for a Different Dinner

For something different to serve at dinner, here are clever kabob suggestions.

Thread on wooden or metal skewers cubes of lamb alternating with tomato and onion slices; frankfurters cut in fourths and alternated with pearl onions and bacon strip; pineapple chunks and ham cubes or liver squares, mushrooms and bacon.

Brush kabobs with melted butter or margarine and broil at moderate temperature.

Baby Needs Shoes?

In selecting a shoe for a baby, buy one with a puffy toe. In fact, the only part of a baby's shoe that should fit snugly is the heel, which should grip the foot firmly, as the heel controls and balances the foot. If the instep is too tight, it stops blood circulation and presses the arch bones out of shape.

Don't clean away oil accumulations with an oily cloth; use one dampened with alcohol.

Here's Something brand new for you

"I wish I could begin to tell you what this new Long Distance Center means to you. With our new switchboards and dialing equipment, we can now complete most of your long distance calls even to places that are thousands of miles away, twice as fast as we ever did before—and in many cases as fast as you can get your next door neighbor. "When you call your mother in San Francisco, for example, we can now dial her telephone directly without assistance along the way . . . and lots of times we'll have you in touch with her in less than half a minute."

A MIRACLE OF SPEED

This remarkable speed in handling long distance calls is made possible by one of the most significant telephone developments of recent years — operator toll dialing. For New England, the key to this faster, better service is the new Long Distance Center in Boston.

With confidence in the future, this huge investment provides the building and equipment designed to function with other similar Centers throughout the nation. It is one of our major postwar construction projects to bring you better telephone service.

And just as always, you'll reach the long distance operator — friendly, courteous and ready to help you.

Science has provided the speed — the operator will still provide the spirit.

portant. Only as each person and each church moves together will the impact of their united effort be felt by the community.

"Maybe when you go to your fellow church member you wonder what you should say. Say to that casual church member, 'You need your church and your church needs you.' Every person benefits by a church, yet most of our churches have a hard time getting enough to carry on their programs because many who ought to pledge leave the bills for others to pay. Many give now could give more. Many give only when they go to church now and then. They forget that church expenses are constant, they go on day after day and week after week."

"The church provides so many things which money cannot buy. Guidance, inspiration, joy, courage, comfort, hope, and peace for all people of all ages. It gives continuous 'round the clock' service to the community. It gives insurance for a decent community in which to live. The church which does all this deserves the best that people can give. ## "Hamlet" Returns to Boston for Brief Stay

Since last it played in Boston for its American premiere at the Astor Theatre, Laurence Olivier's film production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" has won five top Academy Awards and will now return for a brief engagement at the Kenmore Theatre starting Wednesday November 23. Three complete shows will be given daily at 2:30, 5:30 and 8:30, these will not be continuous each performance sold separately on an unreserved seat basis.

Produced and directed by Olivier with a cast of top English Shakespearean actors, Hamlet has played to tremendous business since its premiere in Boston in August 1948. It has in fact earned more money than any other English motion picture that has yet been brought to this country and has gone far to cement international relations between the countries.

Eileen Herlie plays Queen Gertrude with Basil Sydney as the King; Jean Simmons plays the lovely Ophelia and Felix Aylmer plays Polonius, Terrance Morgan is Laertes and Norman Wooland is Hamlet's good friend Horatio. The musical score was composed by the noted William Walton and is played by the London Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Muir Matheson.

Special arrangements are available for students either singly or in groups for any performance during the limited return date.

The Kenmore engagement is the only one in this area this season as the film will not be generally released for another year.

Cancer Society Organized by Doctors in 1913

Cancer's greatest enemy is the American Cancer Society, the biggest and best known private organization in the cancer field. It was organized in 1913 by a group of doctors and laymen as the American Society for the Control of Cancer. The Society's early contribution to the war against cancer was an educational campaign to convince doctors and the public that cancer could be treated effectively if discovered early enough.

Education is still a major part of the work of ACS. At the same time, its research program is steadily expanding.

In 1913, the society launched its battle against almost total public ignorance of cancer, quackery, and the tendency to avoid the subject as too unpleasant for discussion—with a budget of just $10,000.

In 1948, contributions from the public totaled $13,221,000—enough for a large-scale attack against the nation's second leading cause of death.

The largest part of ACS's work is performed by 61 divisions representing all the states, a few territories, and 10 large metropolitan areas.

The Massachusetts Division of the American Cancer Society has offices at 462 Boylston street, Boston, where the staff includes a full-time medical director, educational director, field worker and office assistants. The Massachusetts Division awards many grants in its own right for research, and carries on programs of education and medical service.

Its policies and program are guided by its unpaid officers, directors, and professional committees. Each April is conducted in conjunction with that of the National Society.

Sixty cents of each dollar raised by the Massachusetts Division in the annual campaign is retained for its own local program; 25 cents is allocated nationally to research; 15 cents goes to the national office to finance its activities.

The national office facilitates exchange of ideas and methods among the division, and helps them to operate at top efficiency. All the divisions depend almost entirely on volunteers at county and community levels for the best possible job of education and service.

In the field of professional education, the American Cancer Society recognizes that unless family doctors are alert to the early signs of cancer, the opportunity for prompt and effective treatment may well be lost. Therefore its program of educating the doctors themselves has become increasingly broad in scope. Recently, for instance, ACS has undertaken publication of a bi-monthly journal, "Cancer," for professional readers; a series of sound films in color on diagnostic techniques; and material on the early recognition of cancer. ACS also sponsors many institutes, conferences for doctors, a cancer library, and other services for professional men.

In public education, ACS provides a vast array of materials—anything from a simple leaflet to a full-length color movie, foreign language material; special program for population groups such as farmers, labor, veterans, government employees; and of course material for the press, radio, magazines, television and other information media.

The work of the American Cancer Society may someday mean to you the difference between life and death. Can you afford NOT to support this great program?

UNITED CHURCH CANVASS PERSONALITIES

Rev. Richard P. McClintock
Executive Secretary

When the church bell rings, say "YES" November 27, is the national slogan for the United Church Canvass. Rev. Richard P. McClintock, executive secretary of the Newton Council of Churches, who is a member of the Newton Canvass Committee, announced today.

Expressing his opinion regarding the value of the United Church Canvass, Mr. McClintock said: "It began in Newton in 1941. It has spread throughout the entire country since then. It must have tangible direct values and deep indirect values for this to happen. The national slogan best expresses what I mean."

Canvass officials today paid the following tribute to Mr. McClintock: "Born in Winthrop, where he attended public school, he graduated in 1926 from Dartmouth where he played basketball and football. He then attended the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge and after graduation became the rector of St. Paul's Church in Lancaster, N. H. In Lancaster, he not only carried on his parish duties but became president of Rotary, the Outing Club, and among other activities, headed the Town Spending Committee, which operated well-organized youth programs and a community house. The McClintocks remained in Lancaster until 1938 when Rev. McClintock received his call to the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale. They have three children, a daughter Barbara, who attends Westbrook Junior College, a son, Richard, Jr. in Newton High School and John Alexander, "Sandy," age three and a half years.

"It was during his busy pastorate that in 1943 a disastrous fire destroyed the church edifice and necessitated an arduous campaign for funds which, under the leadership of the Rev. McClintock, met with splendid response," officials said. "The new church and parish house were built just as soon as conditions permitted and today stand as beautiful and practical witnesses to the courage, faith and persistence of both the rector and his parish."

"Thus the executive secretary of the Newton Council of Churches brings to that organization and so to the United Church Canvass an enthusiasm and an organizing ability which spell success. The community is to be congratulated on his shouldering this work of mutual benefit to all church members of whatever faith and denomination."

Although chickenpox occurs most frequently in children between two and six years of age, it can strike at any age. One attack of the disease can give a person immunity to future attacks. Doctors believe that adults who have not had the disease in childhood can get it, particularly during an epidemic of chickenpox in the community.

Health for All Chickenpox

Chickenpox is primarily a disease of childhood, and most people have had it by the time they become adults.

LEGALS

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled.

The undersigned, citizen of Brookline, Massachusetts, respectfully petitions for the passage of the accompanying bill, and for its enactment into law, and represents as follows:

That your Petitioner is President of Boston Elevated Railway Company, a corporation organized under Chapter 548 of the Massachusetts Acts of 1934; and that your Petitioner is going pursuant to the terms of Massachusetts Acts of 1931, Chapter 333, Section 17.

That by virtue of said Section 17 said sale worked a dissolution of the company subject to being continued as a body corporate for three years for the purposes of liquidating its affairs and dividing its capital stock.

That by reason of pending claims of the United States Treasury against said company, it appears unlikely that said company will be able to close its affairs and divide its capital stock within said three year period.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner respectfully asks your honor to extend the charter of said company for a further period of three years solely for the purpose of enabling it to close its affairs and divide its capital stock.

(Signed) P. A. O'CONNELL, President.

Separates Are Colorful, Dramatic; With Many Moods

Sing a song of separates in a gay and happy tune—because it's a highly symphonic season for ensembles—ensembles of separates. There are three important parts to the composition that look like a complete outfit, et go on for more occasions and more seasons, as separates.

The skirt, vest, shirt combination with the skirt and vest, kit matching and a tailored or dressy blouse for contrast is a high for all-around wear. On the same basis, the skirt, blouse and jacket trio continue to hold their own in any society—appear in correlated tweed and jersey.

Coordinates in the blouse and skirt twosomes are linked by a belt to give a one-piece look. In matching or contrasting jersey, tone-on-tone wool jersey, tweed skirt and color-blended jersey blouse, plus a jersey belt to match the blouse. The separate vest, goes with everything, in a riot of color and a variety of fabric, suede and chamolais are favorites.

Waist-length cardigan sweaters with all the favorite wool yarns go quite gay also, in metallic ribbon, chenille and other novelty knits. These are worn at the skirt top or tucked in.

Vets' Quiz

Q. As a World War II veteran with a bad conduct discharge, am I entitled to any benefits under the GI Bill?

A. You should contact your nearest Veterans Administration office for a decision as to whether you were discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. Or you may apply to the armed service from which you received your bad conduct discharge for a review of your discharge under Section 301 of the GI Bill.

Q. I am now receiving compensation from the VA, but I feel that I should be getting more. Can you advise me as to who may assist me in presenting my claim before the VA rating board?

A. Any organization accredited under P. L. 844, 74th Congress, any attorney or agent recognized by VA, or a VA contact representative may present your claim before the VA rating board. VA will recognize anyone you want to represent you in your particular claim, provided he files a proper power-of-attorney with the office where a claim is located, and a statement that no fee will be charged for the service rendered.

Q. I am taking on-the-job training under the GI Bill in a hazardous occupation. Will the VA pay for my hospitalization if I am injured while in training?

A. No. Any disabilities incurred while in training under the GI Bill are considered non-service-connected. Of course, if you are otherwise eligible for hospitalization by the VA as a war veteran, you may be furnished such hospitalization in a VA facility if a bed is available.

According to a recent survey by the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, New England Chapter, more rheumatic disease patients treat themselves than those seeking aid from their physicians.

NEWTON FALLS SHORT OF GOAL IN CAMPAIGN

The Red Feather Campaign, at its final dinner meeting at the Hotel Bradford on Thursday night, November 17, announced that total subscriptions of $5,803,650 have been received, this being 97.5% of the goal for 1950 needs.

Newton has received subscriptions of $262,379 or 87.5% of its goal. Chairman Harold T. Pillsbury states that there are still many subscriptions expected to come in, and the final total in Newton will be somewhat bigger than that presently announced.

"We are naturally disappointed in the local Campaign results," Mr. Pillsbury states, "especially as some 2500 leaders and workers have worked ardently right up until the last minute. Newton selected a goal this year based upon the estimated needs of its own agencies as approved by its own Budget Committee. This goal was 4% higher than the actual amount raised last year, and 10% higher than actual card values. Most divisions and communities set their goals on a lower basis, which accounts for the reason that Newton's percentage raised shows as being lower than other communities and the total Campaign. Had we in Newton accepted a goal on the same formula basis as other communities, our total percentage would be more in line with the average of other cities and groups.

"I want to express to all Red Feather contributors and workers the sincere thanks of the Chest for their generous participation in the Campaign. I also want to express, on my own behalf, sincere appreciation to all who have helped me in this arduous drive. I doubt if any group of Newton citizens has ever been more loyal to a cause than those who have backed me up this year. We did not reach our objective, but I am certain that we succeeded in obtaining all the funds possible for this present Campaign."

Water Cyclamen Just a Little

Keep budded and blooming Cyclamen plants in rooms with about 60 degree temperature. Supply the moisture from below by sinking the pots in a pan of water, but do not let surplus water stand in the saucer. Dust the leaves with a soft brush instead of washing them.

Thin-leaved plants like Coleus, require more frequent watering than thick-leaved plants like Geraniums, Sansevieria, and Rubber plants.
